AL SMITH IS LAID UP IN HUB

Kept to His Room in Copley-Plaza by Rheumatism; Speeches Cancelled

Governor "Al" Smith of New York is confined to bed at the Copley-Plaza Hotel, suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

As a result of his illness, his rally scheduled for tonight in Providence, in the interests of the Democratic national campaign has been cancelled. His tour of New Englond is ended.

Rallies in New Haven tomorrow afternoon and Waterbury tomorrow night have also been called off, but "Al" will make a valiant effort to keep speaking dates in New Jersey on Friday and Saturday.

Governor Smith's rheumatic attack followed his speech before a record-breaking crowd at Mechanics Building last night. He perspired freely and the damp weather took effect.

ORDERED TO BED.

He remained in bed today on orders from the hotel house physician, Dr. James H. Stevens. He agreed to abide by the doctor's advice to stay there for at least twenty four hours.

Dr. Stevens declared that his patient has no abnormal temperature and that his attack is not serious.

The Governor's secretary, George R. Vannamme, said the cancellations of the New England speaking appointments were made so that the Governor can be assured of being in the best physical condition on next Monday, when in Albany he launches his gubernatorial campaign.

LEAVES TOMORROW.

According to rearranged plans "Al" will leave Boston tomorrow.

Governor Smith was given a welcome he will never forget in his Mechanics Hall rally, in which he shared speaking honors with Mayor Curley and Senator Walsh. He was visibly affected by the warmth of his reception.

NEED ONLY ONE MORE FOR TITLE

Giants Now Have Edge in Series, Three Games to Two

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 8.—The Giants see-sawed into the World's Series lead again today by crushing the amazing Senators down to defeat in the fifth game.

The score was: Giants 6, Senators 2.

With today's battle safely garnered, the Giants now have a three to two edge over Washington and need but one more game to win the championship.

Johnson was accorded a tremendous ovation when he walked to the mound after the Senators had been retired in the first. Lindstrom spoiled it by cracking out an immediate single, however.

The master of speed then settled down and dumped the Giant sluggers.

The siege gun was given another roar of acclaim when he came to bat in the third. He responded with a single that bounced off the left field wall, but was hurled out when he overran the bag.

McGraw's men pushed their first tally over in the third, Jackson beating out an infield hit to short as a starter. Gowdy fanned, but Bentley, one of those rare birds—a pinch hitting pitcher—singled to right, Jackson pulling up at third. He scored on Lindstrom's infield hit. Frisch filled the bases with an infield hit.

The side died when Bentley was thrown out trying to score on Young's fly to Rice.

Washington evened it up in the fourth, a single by Judge to right, sacrifice by Bluege and Ruel's out at first, landing Judge on third. He scored on Miller's single to right. Miller died stretching it.

In New York's fourth a score was lost when Terry, after crashing a triple, was trapped off third by Johnson's toss on Wilson's bounder.

Bentley made a mad bid for his own game in the fifth, poling a four sacker into the right field stand, scoring Gowdy, who had singled, ahead of him. Washington whirled a fast double play, getting Young and Kelly on Long George's roller.

"Goose" Goslin repeated his feat of yesterday by lifting a home run against the right field wall in the eighth. None was on. Judge followed with a single and McGraw dragged Bentley for McQuillan. Ruel rolled out.

DE KAY WANTS COOLIDGE TO ASSURE HIM SAFETY IN AMERICA

WANTED IN BANK FAILURE FEARS SEDITION PENALTY

London, Oct. 8.—The defense of John Wesley De Kay, formerly of Providence, R. I., in the extradition proceedings brought by the United States government, was opened today with the declaration that the American government is seeking to punish him for his pacifist activities during the war.

The United States is asking his extradition on charge of "participation in the permission of the crime of fraud by a banker or the officer of a company" in connection with the failure of the Atlantic National Bank of Providence in 1913.

De Kay today said that he had published a book on the World War in 1917 which the American Minister at Berne told him the government considered seditious.

De Kay identified a letter from the American State Department saying that no charge would be preferred against him, except that of violating the banking laws, in the event that he returned to the United States within a reasonable time.

Asked if he still were willing to go to America to meet the banking charges, he declared: "Yes, I am, if I can have a proclamation of amnesty from the President."

WHEELER CHARGE FALSE, SHIP OFFICIAL ASSERTS

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 8.—Charges of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Independent vice-presidential candidate, that secret freight rate pact exists between the government-owned Alaska Railroad and the Alaska Steamship Company, a Morgan corporation, were termed by E. T. Stannard, vice-president of the steamship firm here, as "partly misstatement and partly deliberate falsehood."

"The Alaska Railroad, having no permanent outbound tonnage, and being eager to develop some along its line, solicited the haul of ore from the White Pass and Yukon Railway, a Canadian corporation," declares Stannard.

ASKS $100,000 FOR PAYING OF DEPOSITORS

Cosmopolitan Trust Agent Wants Magrane Ordered to Settle Account

Depositors of the closed Cosmopolitan Trust Company will be paid "a further substantial dividend" promptly if Patrick B. Magrane, wealthy merchant of Lynn, pays $100,000. The merchant is one of the Cosmopolitan Trust Company directorate.

Today, in Supreme Court, Henry O. Cushman, liquidating agent of the closed bank, filed a petition asking that Magrane be compelled to pay a balance of $100,000 under an agreement made by him to compromise for $150,000 his indebtedness to the bank, "consisting of his liability as a director" in the sum of $100,000 and other claims against him.

According to the petition, Magrane, early in the Summer, was allowed to compromise, but told the liquidating agent he would need a little more time.

The merchant, it is asserted, agreed to pay $100,000 during the first half of July and the other $50,000 during the latter part of August. On July 24 and September 6 Magrane made payments of $25,000 each, the petition states, but nothing has been received since.

When the residue of the Magrane compromise is paid, "a further substantial dividend" will promptly be paid depositors, the liquidating agent promises.

VICE-CONSUL'S PARENTAGE IS MYSTERY

John Henderson, United States vice-consul at Salonika and a native of Boston, will probably go to his grave without solving the mystery surrounding his parentage.

The strange story of the vice-consul, raised in St. Mary's Industrial school in Baltimore, has just been revealed in part by Brother Paul, who brought up the child.

Mr. Henderson's mother married against the will of her parents and came to Boston to live immediately after her marriage, according to Brother Paul. When the mother died, the child was taken to Baltimore and placed in the home. Each year, two checks, each for $70 were received at the home to be credited to the expenses of John Henderson. The checks were drawn in such a manner that the identity of the person paying the money could not be learned.

At the age of seventeen the youth went to Italy as secretary to Mgr. Fay of Philadelphia, who was named as Red Cross commissioner to Italy by President Wilson.

Later, Henderson was sent to Venice as manager of the American Red Cross station at that place, and following his work with the Red Cross he joined the consular service.

For many years, Henderson and Brother Paul have made unsuccessful search for the nurse who delivered Henderson, as a baby, to the asylum.

400 GIRLS ENROLLED FOR FORGET-ME-NOT DAY

Four hundred girls have enrolled for service as saleswomen on Forget-Me-Not Day, November 8. The proceeds of the sale of forget-me-nots will go to the disabled veterans of the World War. Mrs. Nathaniel F. Emmons of Hingham is chairman of the Boston committee. She has been promised support by Radcliffe College girls, employes of the United States Service Bureau and the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. The girls from the John Hancock offices won the silver loving cup last year by their work on Forget-Me-Not Day. Girls of the Sewing Circle, Junior League and Vincent Club will be on the streets with flowers this year. The Misses Marie V. Walsh, Marie Forde, Agnes McLaughlin and M. Madeline Hayes are among those who have volunteered service.

Mr. Coolidge Says It
Say It Harder, Please
Caterpillars Won't Hurry
The Hangman, Perhaps

Current Events

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright, 1924, by Star Co.)

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE has said just what the people wanted him to say about the League of Nations and Japan's impertinent suggestion that she should dictate our immigration law.

He might have said it "harder," with more of a punch and more of a yell—in the old Roosevelt fashion.

Referring plainly to the League of Nations effort to bully this country, the President says that Americans mean to "reserve to themselves the choice of their own course and the decision of their own action. We do not propose to intrust to any power or any combination of powers any authority to make up our minds for us."

EUROPEAN DIPLOMATS will understand that clearly. Asiatic diplomats, also.

It means that this country serves notice on other powers that we are able to manage our affairs and intend to do it.

There wouldn't be any doubt about Coolidge carrying California, if he would say it in the Roosevelt way:

"This is to notify Japan and the League of Nations that the United States will attend to its business. We warn Japan and the league to keep their hands out of our affairs. When we say no Asiatic immigration, we mean it, and that GOES."

One thing is certain, John W. Davis has not helped himself in California by advocating tying this country up with the League of Nations. To be invited is one thing, to be threatened and coerced is another. The people do not like the threatening and don't intend to be coerced.

And that is true especially of California, which knows, by experience, what Asiatic immigration means.

MEYER LONDON and Professor Nearing have a Socialist debate. The professor says, "Class consciousness" should keep Socialists from voting for La Follette. Also, says he, the Russian system of Communism will rule here, forty years hence. He is mistaken.

Communism is dying out in Russia, as it would anywhere else, the instinct of individual possession being the strongest in human beings next to self preservation.

FORTY YEARS hence men will be just beginning to make "real money." At present men are only beginning to learn how. In the process of getting for themselves they will develop values for others, fortunately.

YOU CAN'T CHANGE anything in this world suddenly. You can't even change a caterpillar into a butterfly in five minutes. Arguing with a caterpillar, begging him to be "class conscious" won't do it. Setting a match to one end of the cocoon may ruin that cocoon, but it won't bring out the butterfly.

AS FOR class consciousness there is enough in the man conscious of the fact that he is a citizen of the United States, and determined to see that all classes get fair treatment, no favoritism. A class conscious man admits limitations and suggests failure. No need of that here.

A HORRIBLY sordid tragedy will presently occupy a jury and later, perhaps, the hangman. Mrs. Willow, thirty-eight, had working on her farm a boy, seventeen, Ralph Shadle. For the usual reasons she persuaded the boy to kill her husband. They both confessed it.

In the usual way he blames the woman; she takes the blame and says: "I want to hang if they hang him," and is the usual background. The husband, now murdered, was kind at first, although he didn't marry her until the baby was born. Then she says: "He began to throw the axe at me occasionally, he drank, etc."

REPORTERS, jury, judge, and perhaps the hangman, will attend to the details, then pass on to the next case. Zola, in one way, Ibsen in another, would have made a long story out of that case.

AN OLD WOMAN, eighty-five, found wandering in a big city park, unable to tell where she lived, is taken to the hospital. She could only say, "My address is 301!"

Will this "poor" old lady be identified and taken home? She WILL, for in the bag that she carried she had $4,620.75 in cash, besides some jewelry. Her friends and relations will find her, and hunt for her most patiently.

TEMPEST OVER; BOY STUDENTS WON'T STRIKE

Things Going Smoothly at the Worcester "Poly"; Now Each Side Understands

Worcester, Oct. 8.—It was all "a tempest in a teapot" at Worcester Polytechnic which agve rise to the story that members of the sophomore class would strike if their president, Bernard J. Wahlin, was forced to resign because of a hazing party with freshmen in front of City Hall.

And so there won't be any more boiling over, sophomore and freshmen have made up, and there isn't going to be even the usual flag rush, which hitherto has satisfied the blood lust of the two classes, on October 18.

The hazing occurred during the parade through the city. Wahlin had signed the application for a police permit for the parade, in which he agreed there would be no stops made between the start and finish at Lincoln square.

Then when the hazing party was staged in front of the City Hall, Wahlin was the goat.

The police accepted things philosophically, but President Hollis decided to call a halt.

SHE WEIGHED 100 AND LOOKED LIKE 250

Circus Girl Held in Newton With Her Husband After a House Is Looted

When Patrolman [illegible] arrested Nellie Perry, twenty-four-year-old circus rider, as she and her husband Jack cowered in a half constructed house, the girl appeared to be abnormally stout and to weigh about 250 pounds.

In Newton District Court today, after a trying interview with the matron, the girl appeared as a petite bob-haired blonde, slender and willowy, and weighing not more than 100 pounds.

Coats, sweaters and dresses she was wearing when the law got her made all the difference. The garments were piled on the table as exhibits today.

Mrs. Perry and her husband pleaded guilty to stealing clothing from the homes of the late Mrs. Addie Barker at No. 76 Hyde avenue, Newton Highlands, and Harry F. W. Robinson, No. 11 Waverly avenue, Newton.

Judge Bacon, who lives two doors from the Barker home, continued the case and held the couple in $2,000 each.

HUSBAND ALL WRONG ON CLAM EXPERT, SAYS 'MERRY WIDOW'

CHARGE SHE IS VICTIM OF PLOT

Accuses Sleuths of "Framing Up" Tete-a-Tete With the Barnstable Postmaster

There's a clam chowder and a clam broth, but not until four men burst into the apartment of Mrs. G. McLeod Baynes, original "Merry Widow"— by which is meant the play, mind you—was a clam stew created.

Now Mrs. Baynes—the vivacious Ethel Jackson of bygone stage days and nights—charges, in Yorkville, N. Y., court, that she was "framed" by her husband, who seeks a divorce.

The whole difficulty arose from the fact that when the four sudden visitors arrived, Mrs. Baynes was in company of Marcus E. Howes, former postmaster at Barnstable, down on the Cape.

EVERYTHING O. K.

Despite the presence of Howes, however, the former musical comedy star testified in court that everything was O. K. and they were not even playing postoffice. Howes is engaged in the scientific propagation of clams down on the Cape sands.

The former postmaster, instead of ducking publicity and all that sort of thing, got his Cape Cod blood up and turned on the four unwelcome visitors, charging them with impersonating officers, assault and illegal detention.

DENOUNCES INTRUSION.

That mode of procedure on the part of a man found in a married woman's room is not according to Hoyle as studied by private detectives, but even New York detectives are capable of learning something new occasionally.

Joseph J. Cumiskey, head of the Inter-State Detective Service; John J. Walsh, head detective of the Hotel Martinique, New York; his assistant, Joseph Lannin, and "Major" Joseph W. Beet, are defendants in the Yorkville case.

In declaring the raid to be a frame-up Mrs. Baynes testified that Beet was chosen by her husband to bring her and Howes together, for the purpose of obtaining divorce evidence.

CHARGES FRAME-UP.

Howes testified that Beet, after scraping his acquaintance and posing as an author and theatrical man, induced the former postmaster to go to Mrs. Baynes' apartment and attempt to persuade her to return to musical comedy as star of a musical comedy Beet said he controlled.

The rest is simple, in the court telling. Beet, with his three companions, burst into the apartment and found Howes with Mrs. Baynes —conversing.

The former "Merry Widow" is'nt at all merry during the trial. She's mad clean through because of the alleged frame-up.

Prince Won't Visit Boston; Will Keep to North Shore Home of Hosts

THEY'LL RIDE TO HOUNDS WITH WALES

Mrs. Neal Rice, above, and Bayard Tuckerman, Jr., who is to be host to the Prince of Wales when he comes to visit the North Shore, taking the barriers in the famous fox hunt at the Myopia Hunt Club. Inserts are of the Prince and Mrs. Tuckerman.

British Consul Notifies Mayor of Plans of the Royal Visitor

Just when Boston society folk were becoming a bit excited at the prospect of balls and State receptions to the Prince of Wales, word came today that he will not visit Boston at all when he calls upon the Bayard Tuckermans at their home in Hamilton.

Bostonians whose calling cards don't carry weight with the Tuckermans or at the Myopia Country Club will have to take it out in reading about him.

Plans to give him such a welcome as was awarded the late King Edward when he visited Boston as the Prince of Wales in 1860 have gone glimmering.

CONSUL'S LETTER.

All the functions the Prince will attend will be at the Tuckerman home or the Country Club.

This was all made clear today in a letter from Edward F. Gray, British consul, to Mayor Curley. The letter follows:

"In view of the various press reports current as to the possible program of H. R. H., the Prince of Wales, I feel it may be of interest to you that I am informed he will not visit Boston on this occasion either in an official or unofficial capacity.

"I gather that his destination is the country, at the North Shore, where he has been invited to hunt for a few days, and he is going there only for that purpose."

It is known that despite the apologetic statements of Tuckerman respecting the character of the North Shore hunting grounds, he and other enthusiasts are confident the Prince will find the country to his liking.

CROSSES OCEAN IN AIRPLANE FROM BOSTON

John Champagne Belittles the Feat, but Judge Sends Him to Psychopathic

Even in these fervid, space-filling World's Series days, a modicum of respect is due John B. Champagne, who does big things in a big way, yet keeps out of the public print.

That qualifies imaginative John as champion blushing violet of the universe.

They picked up John in the Back Bay while he was incognito, disguised as a common panhandler, which is just his way of doing things. There was a hint of low funds, but that was purely incidental.

In Municipal Court they tried to crush his spirit and belittle his achievements by holding him up as a common vagrant. But John would not down.

NOT A "VAG."

"I'm not a vag., judge," he confided to Judge Lourie. I've got a bankbook and what's more, I own a house."

"Where is this house," Judge Lourie asked.

"In Detroit—four stories high. A big house."

"He told me it was in South Boston." This from the arresting policeman.

"Not only that, but I'm a fighter, busting 'em over for big jack," John B. volunteered.

"Maybe you licked Jack Dempsey," suggested the Judge.

"I don't remember," returned John B., indicative of a keen sense of legal jurisprudence.

"Ten days at the State Farm," Judge Lourie pronounced, also indicating that same thing.

AN OCEAN AIRMAN.

But here Dr. E. A. Sandoz, just like the melodramatic moment at a wedding, rushed in with hand raised.

"Stop," he intoned—which is highbrow for just talking. "Don't send this man to the State Farm. He told me he had just flown over the Atlantic Ocean."

"How come?" asked the judge of John B. Champagne.

"Oh, yes," he replied, recalling now. "I took an airplane off of Boston Common and made a little trip to Europe and back. When I returned I boxed a few rounds with President Roosevelt. Nice boy, Teddy."

"Ten days for observation at the Psychopathic," announced the judge, and this time it took.

Electric Railway Investment Is 10 Billions

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 8.—The total investment in the electric railway industry in the United States is $10,000,000,000 and one person in every eighty-five owns part of an electric line. About 500,000 persons are employed by the industry.

These official figures were made public by the American Electric Railway Association today during its convention.

DRIVER NEAR DEATH AS TRUCK HITS POLE

Anthony Levores of No. 114 South Walnut street, Quincy, narrowly escaped death today when a five-ton truck he was operating side swiped the railroad bridge on Dorchester avenue, South Boston, and crushed into a telegraph pole thirty yards beyond. If the truck had gone through the wooden fence on the bridge it would have dropped forty-five feet.

KLAN BOYCOTT IN ROWLEY CHARGED

Storekeepers Being Punished for Not Joining Order, Woman Says

Newburyport, Oct. 8. — Ku Klux Klansmen are boycotting certain business men of the town of Rowley and spreading propaganda against politicians who refuse to join their order, a Klan organizer boasted today.

Members of the Democratic Committee of Rowley are coming in for particularly harsh treatment by reason of their defiance of the Klan.

"We will have Rowley organized eighty-five per cent. for the K. K. K. within six weeks," the Klan organizer predicted.

From the same source, it has been learned that the Klans claim to have Ipswich organized seventy-five per cent. and is planning the formation of one of the biggest klaverns in the State in Newburyport.

In Ipswich the organizers of the Invisible Empire have rented a store on a conspicuous corner of a busy street and are selling literature of the "Menace" type. They make no secret of their purpose in the town.

When Newburyport is organized, members will be accepted from the border town of New Hampshire, and the small comunities in this part of Massachusetts. This corner of the State is rapidly becoming the prize Klan community of the East, and high officials of the order have been here on tours of inspection and expressed themselves as greatly pleased.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE CHARGES DEATH THREAT

Springfield, Oct. 8.—Clandestine meetings played an important part today in the testimony of Mrs. Ella F. Lay's divorce claim action against William Lay, millionaire realtor and horseman, and Mr. Lay's counter suit.

The wife seeks divorce on grounds of cruel and abusive treatment. Lay charges infidelity.

Mrs. Lay said that once when she returned unexpectedly to her hotel apartment she found her husband's stenographer, Mrs. Gertie Bosworth, in the room.

The girl had on Mrs. Lay's bedroom slippers, the latter testified. She said they explained that the girl had got her feet wet and had dropped in to dry them.

In addition, the wife testified, the real estate man drove her out of the house, threatened to drive an automobile into a tree and kill himself and her, and annoyed her otherwise.

Attorney Thomas J. Moriarty, in cross-examination, asked her if she remembered an occasion on which her husband returned to their hotel apartment unexpectedly and found the door locked.

The lawyer continued his question by asking her if she remembered that, after a long wait, the door was opened and George Leonard, manager of the hotel, came out. She said she remembered no such incident, and denied that she ever threw her arms about Leonard and begged him not to leave her.

Lay's income last year was $78,000, Mrs. Lay testified, in referring to alimony.

Man's Voice Is Restored by Punch in Face

Springfield, Oct. 8.—The voice of Peter Payne, 31, of Tracy street, lost through an automobile accident in Worcester, June 14, was restored by a sharp blow on the nose, suffered in a scuffle near his home, it was learned from his physician.

GENEVA LAWYER INSANE, CONTENTION OF DEFENSE

Geneva, Ill., Oct. 8.—A jury to pass upon the mental condition of Warren J. Lincoln was obtained today and introduction of testimony has started.

On the defense side there will be an attempt to show that the lawyer comes of a family wherein there has been frequent insanity, and that he did not know what he did when he slew his wife, Lina, and her brother, Byron Shoup, and sealed their heads side by side in a block of concrete.

IBANEZ TO WRITE BOOK HITTING KING

Paris, Oct. 8.—Blasco Ibanez, declaring he considers it his duty to make known the truth about his country, is engaged in writing a book against the Spanish military directorate. The novelist says he does not intend even to spare the King, of whom he remarks: "I never consented to be introduced to him because I knew that one day I should have to fight him."

MISS COTTON THIRD WIFE OF E. R. THOMAS

New York, Oct. 8.—Edward R. Thomas, millionaire sportsman and newspaper publisher, and Miss Lucy Cotton, an actress, formerly of Houston, Tex., have been married in Paris.

Thomas is the son of the late General Samuel Thomas, who left a fortune, and a brother of the late Mrs. Eleanor Thomas Beeckman, wife of the former Governor of Rhode Island. His present bride is his third wife.

She has appeared at Boston theatres and has more than ordinary beauty and skill as a show girl.

Last month announcement was made that Thomas had settled more than $1,000,000 upon his second wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Finley, and who divorced him a few months ago. He married her in 1912, having previously been divorced by his first wife who was Miss Linda Lee of Louisville, Ky.

Thomas lost some of his fortune during the panic of 1907. At that time he was noted for his activities in Wall Street. His stable of racing horses included Hermis, winner of the suburban.

131H DAY POLL GIVES COOLIDGE BIG VOTE

The thirteenth day of the Boston American's Presidential Preference Poll was marked in Greater Boston by the largest vote yet recorded within a single twenty-four-hour period.

The total was 1,235.

President Coolidge emerged from this large vote—larger than that which will be cast on Election Day by many towns in New England—with only 99 votes less than the total of both his rivals combined.

The score for the day was:

| | |
|---|---|
| Coolidge | 568 |
| Davis | 339 |
| La Follette | 328 |
| Coolidge over Davis | 229 |
| Davis over La Follette | 11 |
| Coolidge trailing both together by | 99 |

| | |
|---|---|
| Democrats for Coolidge | 40 |
| Republicans for Davis | 45 |
| Democrats for La Follette | 114 |
| Republicans for La Follette | 144 |
| Others for La Follette | 70 |

The day's vote in detail is set forth in the usual accompanying table:

A careful canvass of Nashua, N. H., by reporters for the Boston American appears to suggest that the Gate City, after all, may not be nearly so strong for La Follette as Manchester, the Granite State metropolis.

In Pawtucket, R. I., La Follette fell back a little. A feature of the poll in both cities, each a textile centre, is the new strength of Coolidge as compared to that or either of his rivals.

The more than 9,000 votes which now have been assembled from various parts of New England contain no suggestion that there is any danger for the President in his home section. His troubles and his worries are elsewhere.

Among the day's incidents in Greater Boston was the case of a young man in a High street leather house, who said to the reporter: "To tell you the truth, I don't know how I shall vote. Two or three times I have felt sure of a decision, only to read or hear something that has led me to change my mind."

La Follette Falls Back In Pawtucket

Pawtucket, R. I., Oct. 8—It may have been the reverberating effect of Governor Smith's speech of last Saturday night in Providence, and his continued presence in the news of New England, but the fact is that a second day's inquiry in Pawtucket found John W. Davis running better and La Follette falling back into an inferior third place.

A significant discovery was that, taken together, La Follette and Davis were stronger than Coolidge alone.

This was the Pawtucket vote on the second day:

| | |
|---|---|
| Coolidge | 195 |
| Davis | 146 |
| La Follette | 78 |

| | |
|---|---|
| Democrats for Coolidge | 3 |
| Republicans for Davis | 22 |
| Democrats for La Follette | 15 |
| Republican for La Follette | 49 |
| Others for La Follette | 14 |

The reporters in this district spent part of their second day on the Central Falls side of the river, in that city visiting Broad and Dexter streets and Chase's Lane. Most of the Pawtucket votes were collected along Exchange street.

Coolidge Gains Heavily In Nashua, N. H.

Nashua, N. H., Oct. 8—It may be that the inquiring reporters took the wrong beat or the erroneous method, but whatever the explanation a second day's poll of Nashua brought out considerable Coolidge strength and discovered the President fairly running away from his rivals.

| | |
|---|---|
| Total vote | 349 |
| Coolidge | 218 |
| La Follette | 67 |
| Davis | 64 |

| | |
|---|---|
| Democrats for Coolidge | 5 |
| Republicans for Davis | 2 |
| Democrats for La Follette | 27 |
| Republicans for La Follette | 7 |
| Others for La Follette | 33 |

There probably are not enough textile-mill votes in the above group to be fairly representative of Nashua as a whole, the list comprising but a single visit to the plants in the Canal street section.

The bulk of the vote was discovered in a tour which embraced Factory, High, Pearl and Park streets and included chats with scores of small merchants. One of the reporters collected many votes on Main street, while another visited the local Greek colony.

La Follette Leading in Washington Herald Pole

Washington, Oct. 8.—The analysis of the Presidential poll of the Washington Herald discloses a continuous increase in the sentiment for La Follette.

Out of the total votes cast during seven days La Follette received slightly more than half, and Coolidge almost two thirds of the balance. La Follette's lead over Coolidge is now 703.

With a total of 2,513 votes received by the Herald, La Follette had 1,344; Coolidge 641, and Davis 528; giving La Follette 175 more than the combined vote of his two opponents.

Former Republicans have cast 1,366, former Democrats, 707 and others 440 for La Follette.

Coolidge has taken 514 Republicans, 70 Democrats and 57 others. Davis has drawn 209 Republicans, 256 Democrats and 63 others.

NEWS OF THE POLITICIANS, BIG AND LITTLE

In Agassiz House, Cambridge, this evening, an organization of college girls will get a thrill or two out of listening to the sister of a Republican United States Senator appealing for votes for La Follette, the—what is it they call him when they are trying to be polite?—"radical."

The speaker of the evening, before the La Follette-Wheeler Club of Radcliffe College, will be Miss Zara DuPont, sister of Senator T. Coleman DuPont of Delaware.

the Pennsylvania coal regions.

United States Senator Burton K. Wheeler is working his way down through Oregon to California. He expects to reach Los Angeles on or about next Monday. Reports from the Coast say La Follette's running mate is "going like a house afire."

"The Saviour could not choose even 12 men all of whom would prove true against corruption. How shall it be expected that politics will always be clean of individual betrayers? The only thing a true partisan can do, a man who believes in his party and wants to serve it, is to denounce such things when they come, regardless of party.

"Lorimerism and Newberryism should never be defended in the name of party. There is no room for such things in the party of Lincoln.

"It is just as much the duty of a Republican to renovate his party of the stench of oil as it was of a Democrat to have denounced and held responsible the miserable crooks who grafted $300,000,000 in the airplane enterprise.

"This thing of keeping silence, hushing up exposes, of apologizing for or smoothing over waste and extravagance and corruption is loyalty to neither party nor country. It is a betrayal of party. It is a betrayal of the people."—United States Senator Borah, in his First Speech of the campaign.

There appears to be some sort of mixup in the Democratic "dates ahead" book. Both Worcester and and Lawrence appear to be expecting United States Senator Walsh at 8 o'clock this evening, Worcester in the rear of City Hall and Lawrence in the Winter Garden.

The Worcester announcement mentions Mayor Curley as another speaker; the Lawrence bills are silent as to the Mayor.

Which means, possibly, that one city is to hear the Senator and the other the Mayor of Boston.

• • •

Mayor Curley has joined the ranks of opponents to the Child Labor amendment to the Constitution. "This is a Bolshevistic scheme," the Mayor says, "and a lot of good people, misled, are accepting it, not knowing the real consequences which will result and the sinister purposes back of the measure."

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this home-made cough syrup. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. It tastes good, never spoils and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

24 PRISONERS ARE USED AS TARGETS

Pekin Soldiers Bind Them to Carts; Battle for Shanghai Is Still Raging

Tien Tsin, Oct. 8. (A.P.)—Twenty-four criminal prisoners, captured by Peking army forces near Shanhaikwan, were bound on carts and taken outside the city to be used in target practice, a Peking general who gave the order remarking the proceeding would be an example to other bad characters.

Subsequently two spies in the Manchurian forces attempting to take Shanhaikwan were captured and executed by Peking soldiers. All criminal prisoners captured in the district have been ordered executed by the Peking general in command.

Fighting continud for possession of Shanhaikwan, but the attacking Manchurian forces of General Chang Tso-Lin were generally repulsed by the Peking army defending the city.

Tokio, Oct. 8. (A.P.)—A spokesman of the Japanese Foreign Office today characterized as unconfirmed, reports widely circulated in Tokio that an American steamer landed large quantities of munitions at Tien Tsin, China, consigned to the Peking armies of the Central Government of China.

SLATER MILLS STRIKE ENDED AT CONFERENCE

Webster, Oct. 8.—While the strike of the 600 employes of the S. Slater and Sons Inc., has been settled, installation of new machinery will prevent resumption of work until October 20 next.

The cotton mill workers have been on strike for the past two weeks. Settlement was made at a conference between President H. N. Slater and a committee of twelve of the strikers.

UNDERTAKER WHO HAD SECRET CELLAR SENTENCED

Lawrence, Oct. 8 (I.N.S.).—Sebastiano D'Amico, an undertaker, of No. 92 Common street, was sentenced to six months in jail today on charges of illegal keeping of liquor. Police raided D'Amico's undertaking rooms yesterday and confiscated a large quantity of choice liquors in a secret vault. D'Amico appealed and was held in $1,000 bonds.

DECLARE CHILD LABOR PLAN IS NOT MENACE

No Communistic Move, Say Members of Bay State Committee

The vigorous opposition in New England to the child labor amendment which will come before the voters at the November election, has drawn the fire of the Massachusetts Child Labor committee.

In a statement the committee declares that Federal child labor supervision such as is proposed, would not jeopardize or abridge any rights now held by the several States of the Union.

NO OTHER POWERS.

The statement follows:

"The child labor amendment is not 'Russian communistic propaganda'; it did not originate as 'the bill of the Socialist party'; it did not originate from any source other than the national movement against child labor, of which the National Child Labor Committee and our State Child Labor Committees are the organized leaders.

"Many States have already on their statute books laws which the proposed amendment is intended to give Congress the right to enact for the country at large. In Massachusetts, for instance, certain dangerous trades are prohibited up to the Child Labor Committee are the orage of eighteen.

NO DANGER.

"When child labor legislation was proposed in Massachusetts large employers of labor always objected on the ground that it put Massachusetts at a disadvantage as compared with other States which did not have similar laws regulating child labor, and they always told us that if we would try for Federal legislation to put competition on the same basis throughout the country they would not oppose us, and we believe that they are keeping their word.

"The amendment does not give Congress power to regulate the education or recreation of children; the power granted deals only with the labor of children, and Congress dealt solely with that when it passed the Federal child labor acts of 1916 and 1919, now inoperative. The Constitutional Liberty League lays stress on the liberty of the individual, but no child should be at liberty to endanger his health and the welfare of future generations.

PRESENT PROHIBITION.

"The age of eighteen in the amendment is intended to allow Congress to prohibit labor under eighteen in certain especially dangerous trades (such as the manufacture of explosives), which many States already prohibit; or to regulate hours, as many of the States also do. No reasonable person wishes or expects Congress to prohibit general labor up to the age of eighteen.

"The real question, and the only question for the voters to bear in mind, in deciding whether or not they will accept the child labor amendment, is whether they wish to abolish child labor in the United States within a reasonable time, or whether they wish to allow child labor to go on until forty-eight States have accepted the standards of child labor set by the most enlightened States.

MAGIC WAND BRINGS WEALTH TO CHILD

HAPPINESS FOR TWO

At top Baby Arline Bliss for whose possession there raged a protracted legal battle, which ended when the court awarded the child to the mother's custody. For a time Fate dealt harshly with the two, but now Arline's mother has a new and devoted husband who is showering the good things of life on Baby Arline. Her mother also shown in lone part of picture was formerly a professional dancer.

DIVORCE WAIF FINDS SELF IN FAIRYLAND

Little Arline Bliss Has New Daddy, Lovely Home and Her Own Automobile

Two years ago this month little seven-year-old Arline Bliss was the center of a bitter legal controversy. Her father and her mother were battling in the courts for her possession. Charges of various kinds were being hurled back and forth by the parents.

The little girl, too young to know what it was all about, smilingly played with the other children in the West Walnut Park section of Roxbury where she lived with her mother, Mrs. Doris Bliss Gannon Telles, then an actress. Little Arline was well cared for by her mother and grandparents, but she knew no luxuries.

Today Arline has a new father. She has a new home. She has wealth in her own name. She goes riding in a new automobile. In short it would almost seem to Arline that some fairy had waved a magic wand and had transported her to fairyland.

Arline's mother married James Gannon of Boston some years ago. Some time later she discovered that at the time of their marriage Gannon's divorce from a previous wife had not become absolute. She had the marriage annulled. Two years ago the father and mother battled for Arline's possession. The court gave her to her mother. Meanwhile Arline's mother had married Leslie H. Telles.

A year ago Telles and his wife were divorced. Then an old friendship between Arline's mother and Lester A. Davis, a well-known Boston theatrical man, ripened into love. For ten years, off and on, Mrs. Telles had worked under the direction of Davis, who owns a big amusement park at Lewiston, Me. Mrs. Telles went there to dance professionally. And there they were married last April.

"We are very happy now," said Mrs. Davis. "I have quit the stage for good. My husband is wonderful, not only to me, but to Arline.

HAD TO EAT AT CART, DECLARES HUSBAND

Franklin Man Asks Divorce Because She "Refused to Cook His Meals"

He had to take his meals in a lunch cart because his wife declined to cook, Edward Couto of Franklin testified today in Norfolk Probate Court in Dedham, seeking a divorce.

Couto said his wife nagged him all the time, until he was so unnerved he could not work. She once threw a perfectly good hat in the stove, he continued, and also hit him with a stove lifter.

Edith F. Waters of Holbrook applied for separate support from Charles R. Waters, engaged in the wholesale beef business at No. 46 Clinton street. She said he left her and their four children. The case was continued until October 16. Miss Emma Cumminsky of No. 119 Regent street, Roxbury, testified she had been Waters' bookkeeper, but had kept strictly to business in her relations with him.

Black eyes figured in the testimony that got Mary M. Davison of Dedham a divorce from Clarence M. Davison of Boston.

Mrs. Susanna Quinn of Mason terrace, Brookline, got a divorce from John E. Quinn of Brookline, on grounds of cruelty.

Mrs. Eleanor E. Blackburn of Medfield was divorced from Russell J. Blackburn of Buffalo. She said he used liquor and drugs.

MARKET PLACE HAS THRILLS AND FUN

The Big Tent has come to town. Grand Opera and hot dogs for a nickel, Fakirs' Row and lobsters out of a Cape Cod dory—and a jazz band that makes you drop your bundles and look around for a partner!

It's the Greatest Show on Earth—no kidding!

For fifty cents you can see everything except the proverbial elephant jump the fence—and there's a Den of Mystery there big enough to hold even an elephant.

From every nook and corner of the United States, broken men who left their youth and dreams and part of their bodies in Flanders Fields, have sent in their handiwork for you to see and buy.

In Uncle Sam's Market Place, in Copley Square, it is bargain day all this week. Laughter and music and thrills—fun, high-brow and low brow—is yours when you get inside.

You win a five-pound box of chocolates if you weigh two hundred and the guesser says a hundred and ninety-five. Mysterious bounties are yours if you knock a howling tom-cat off a wooden fence; you may meet Mrs. Wiggin of the Cabbage Patch for the first time in real life and take a ride on a U. S. battleship.

For a trifling sum you may get "electrically tattooed," taking your choice between your sweetheart's picture or "a sixteen-year-old blush," according to the side-show announcement.

You may win clocks and knives and pictures and twenty five-dollar gold pieces and broiled live lobsters.

And when you're hungry, there are broiling veenies, heavenly ham sandwiches and five-cent coffee—to say nothing of wedges of home-made pie that retail for a dime.

For once, old Boston is getting shocked clear down to her toes. Banked in four sides by the quiet dignity of Copley Square, the Cabots and the Lowells and the Brewsters and the Larz Andersons have "kicked in" with South Boston and Charlestown to put on the funniest show in town and have invited in the multitude to laugh with them.

Etchings, sculpture, paintings, exquisite bits of arts and crafts, contributed by artists and fanciers throughout the city, are marshaled together; carved ivory and jade from China, exotic flowers and oddities from everywhere are mingled with homemade New England preserves and crazy quilts made at Cape Cod sewing bees.

Everything designed to attract and interest has been gathered together by Hub's society to go "over the top" this week for the disabled veterans.

The fair, one of the most successful charity frolics ever put over in Boston, promises to reap a goodly harvest for occupational and hospitalized soldiers and sailors of the World War.

Headed by Mrs. John Lowell, the fair is under the auspices of the Disabled Ex-Service Men's Exchange and has mobilized the rank and file of society to make it victorious. Mrs. Henry D. Comerais, Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards, Mrs. Timothee Adamowski, Mrs. Louise R. de Steiguer, Mrs. Barrett Andrews and many other Beacon Hill folk are giving their services.

TORIES DEMAND CENSURE OF M'DONALD

Fight to Oust British Laborite Ministry Opens in Commons

London, Oct. 8 (I.N.S.).—Sir Robert Horne, a Tory, moved in the House of Commons today that the Labor government be censured for quashing a criminal case against the editor of a communist newspaper.

Horne charged that this action was due to pressure from the extremists.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald defended the cabinet, saying:

"If administration of the law becomes the subject of political expediency, then justice will disappear."

The Premier was on record as saying that, if the censure motion went through his government would resign, ask King George to dissolve Parliament and precipitate a general election.

During the question hour the Tories continuously jeered and taunted the Laborites. Tory leaders were confident the government would be defeated.

King George Returns for Government Crisis

London, Oct. 8 (A.P.). — Public interest in the reassembly of Parliament today was further increased by the announcement that the King was cutting short his holiday at Balmoral, leaving there tonight to arrive in London tomorrow morning to be available if a crisis comes which would necessitate the ministers calling upon him.

GIVES UP WIFE TO "RIVAL" SHE LOVES

Noted College Lecturer Consents to Divorce; Shields the "Other Man"

Chicago, Oct. 8.—To enable his wife to marry another man for whom she confessed a "period passionate love," and with whom she was said in evidence to have been living in Evanston for more than a year, Dr. Alfred Lawrence Hall-Quest, director of the University of Pittsburgh extension work and noted lecturer, has obtained a divorce.

Every precaution was taken to guard the name of the man, the cultured love letters telling of her infatuation for him having been copied into the record with the name deleted. In her letters, the wife pleaded for her freedom, so that "social laws might sanction" her life with the other man for whom she said she was ready "to give up everything else."

Dr. Hall-Quest, aged forty-four, was educated at Princeton and recently, while a professor at Columbia University, took the degree of doctor of philosophy.

He married Shirley Ivy Knox in Minnesota in 1908. In 1923 he said in evidence, while he was at Columbia, she left his home in Cincinnati and came to Chicago with the other man.

A few days after the elopement she wrote her husband a letter which was introduced as evidence, in which she said:

"I wanted to show you, if possible, that my going away with —— was necessary, not because it meant a consummation of the love that is between us, but because it offered as we saw it the only way for an upbuilding made necessary by years of tearing down process.

"That public scandal should be avoided for your sake I can quite realize, but . . . and I can and must take all of the blame that attaches to our decision to live together and therefore no secrecy was even contemplated when we left."

DAVIS WILL ATTACK G. O. P. FOREIGN POLICY

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 8.—John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for President, began today the last lap of his drive in western New York State speaking at noon in Rochester and the final address of the tour tonight in Buffalo. He described his visits to Schenectady, Albany, Utica and here as "particularly encouraging. From now on, to the closing of the campaign, he is expected to stress issues dealing with the Republican foreign policy and the Daugherty and Fall exposures.

W. J. Tucker Better

Hanover, N. H., Oct. 8.—The condition of President (emeritus) William Jewett Tucker of Dartmouth College was said to be definitely better today. Dr. Tucker is 85 years old.

Pure Linen
Damask Napkins
at 1-3 Off

YOU have seen napkins before for $4 a dozen, but almost never the quality there is in these, or anything like it, for such a price. They would be good value at $6 a dozen. Pure damask, nice-looking, and not a bit poor or stringy on close inspection. The correct little flower designs will harmonize perfectly with any of your regular tablecloths. We don't advise you merely to get these if you need them—but get them anyway, whether you do or not. You will some time—and the chances are poor for a price like this on this grade of goods often. The $4 a dozen size is 20-inch; there is another lot, just as good (24-inch), for $5 a dozen, and they are easily worth $8.

Besides this we are offering a heavy hemstitched napkin of excellent Silesian damask (14½-inch) at $4.50 a dozen. Any one of these three values offered is about as good as the others.

This is a clear case of "first come, first served." We don't know just how long these napkins will last—but we do know that it will be only a very short time.

'Sometime Before the Summer' Will See 'Ros' Adie Wed to Robert Almy

By BETTY ALDEN

IT was hardly surprising that jolly "Ros" Adie should murmur "yes" when Robert Almy asked the all-important question.

Ever since her debut—and even before that—the younger daughter of the Andrew Adies has trotted many a thoroughbred from the show ring with the coveted blue adorning his sleek coat.

Equally skilled in the saddle is Bob Almy, son of the William Almys, Jr., of Brookline, who is keenly devoted to polo, playing with the Dedham Country and Polo Club team.

Miss Adie has just returned with the family to the Chestnut Hill home from the Wianno Summer place called "Blinkbonnie."

Wedding plans are still very unsettled, but I understand that the happy event is to take place "some time before the Summer," and not unlikely before that.

In addition to her skill as an equestrienne, Rosamond Adie has enlivened several Vincent Club shows. Last Spring she played the heroine's role in "Wake Up," and the year before she was in the "peppy" octette, one of the cleverest groups who sang and danced their way through "Rush and Wrangle."

APROPOS of Robert Almy, his brother, William Almy, Jr., more familiarly known as "Bunny," has a rather remarkable estate at South Westport on the Cape. The place, known as "Quansett Farm," is frequently the scene of jolly hunting parties among the younger set.

"Bunny" Almy has his own pack of imported hounds, a large string of the finest in blue-blooded horses and everything else to make the place no end interesting to sport lovers.

Whenever the spirit moves him, "Bunny" Almy gathers unto himself a group of friends and the party sails off to some sunny clime on board the Almy yacht anchored off Westport.

THE young son and heir who recently arrived at the menage of Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Story Smith has been named Geoffrey Story, Jr.

His mother was formerly Miss Katherine Coolidge, daughter of the William H. Coolidges of "Blynman Farm," Magnolia. Young Smith received his sheepskin in June of '22, and that same month he took as his bride "Kat" Coolidge. Since their marriage the young people have been making their home in Philadelphia, with frequent visits to "Blyman Farm."

Their wedding was solemnized in St. John's Church at Beverly Farms, which is quite as fashionable as it is small.

Society Notes

MR. AND MRS. FREDERICK J. BRADLEE, JR., are in Stockbridge visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. deGersdorff. The Bradlees spent the Summer at Marblehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Livermore recently arrived in Newport for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Grosvenor at the Phinney villa.

Mrs. Edward Wigglesworth has returned from Jackson, N. H., for an Autumn stay at her home in Manchester-by-the-Sea.

Mrs. Henry L. Higginson is back at "Sunset," West Manchester, following a visit to Westport, N. Y., on Lake Champlain.

Lord and Lady Calthrope have concluded their American visit and sailed today for England on the Aquitania. The titled visitor spent some time in Boston during their visit here.

Mrs. William S. H. Lothrop has returned to her Beacon street residence after spending the Summer at her Manchester place.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Sargent have closed their Summer estate at Bass Rocks and returned to their Winter home in Haverford, Pa.

JAPS REVIVE SCHEME TO COLONIZE MEXICO

Washington, Oct. 8 (I.N.S.). — Japan is once more dreaming of colonizing Mexico. Eiichi Kimura, counsellor of the Japanese embassy here, left for Mexico on a trip that will carry him to every part of the country. Kimura's mission, it is said, will be to discover some way in which a successful experimental colony can be set up in northern Mexico.

Japanese immigration has never been a success in Mexico because of the great mass of cheap labor, with which the Japanese have been unable to compete.

NINE BOMBING PLANES TO MAKE NIGHT FLIGHT

Washington, Oct. 8.—Nine army bombing planes will leave Langley Field, Va., for Mitchel Field, N. Y., on October 10, in the army's first cross-country night flight in formation. Major O. Westover will be flight commander and the machines will be equipped with running lights and landing flares for emergency use.

"The purpose of the flight will be to demonstrate the feasibility of a quick change of base by a bombardment group at night," a War Department announcement said.

A Vincent Club member, whose recently-announced engagement is of considerable interest, is Miss Rosamond ("Ros") Adie, the lucky man being Robert Almy. Both are devoted to sports

REPARATIONS AGENT WEDS LOUISVILLE GIRL

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 8.—Miss Louise Todd of Louisville and S. Parker Gilbert of New Jersey, newly appointed agent general of reparations in Europe under the Dawes plan, were married at Warren Memorial Presbyterian Church here today. The Rev. Dr. Peyton H. Hoge of Pewee Valley, who twenty-four years ago in the same church performed the marriage ceremony for Miss Todd's parents, officiated.

COSTS $100,000 TO JUNK U. S. WARSHIP AS TARGET

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Preparations are under way at the local navy yard to strip the partially completed superdreadnought Washington for use as a target at the Southern drill grounds in December. Use of the ship for gunnery practice is in compliance with the naval armament treaty. Her preparation for target work, it is estimated, will cost $100,000.

Beauty

A Gleamy Mass of Hair

35c "Danderine" does Wonders for Any Girl's Hair

Girls! Try this! When combing and dressing your hair, just moisten your hair-brush with a little "Danderine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can do your hair up immediately and it will appear twice as thick and heavy—a mass of gleamy hair, sparkling with life and possessing that incomparable softness, freshness and luxuriance.

While beautifying the hair "Danderine" is also toning and stimulating each single hair to grow thick, long and strong. Hair stops falling out and dandruff disappears. Get a bottle of "Danderine" at any drug or toilet counter and just see how healthy and youthful your hair appears after this delightful, refreshing dressing.

VET'S MEMORY RESTORED BY DOG'S PHOTO

Mind a Blank, Picture Brings Back Name to His Lips

The photograph of a dog that was his constant companion when he was a boy, has restored the lost memory of Russell Pearson, World War veteran, who left his home in West Lynn, fourteen years ago.

For days Pearson lay in a hospital in Detroit, Mich., unable to tell the hospital physicians anything about himself. Apparently he had no injuries and seemed entirely cognizant of what was going on about him, but his mind was a blank.

Once or twice the patient mumbled the name "Edith Pearson" and always in connection with her name he mentioned West Lynn.

The hospital authorities wrote to the Lynn police asking them to locate Edith Pearson if possible. Mrs. Edith E. Dunn, whose maiden name was Pearson, was finally located.

She wrote the hospital and told the physicians she had a brother, Russell, who had been away from Lynn for fourteen years, she said.

In the letter was a picture of a nondescript dog. The picture was shown the patient. His eyes had scarcely rested on the picture until his face lighted up with a smile.

"Why, that's my dog Handsome," he shouted and in an instant his memory was restored to him.

PROVIDENCE MAN TAKES BRIDE IN NEW YORK

Providence, Oct. 8.—News reached Providence of the marriage in New York of Edwin A. Barrows, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Barrows of this city, and Miss Joy Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Blair of No. 279 Northup street, Edgewood.

The bridegroom is twenty-one years old, son of the president of the Narragansett Electric Lighting Company and grandson of the late United States Senator Le Baron Colt. The bride is nineteen.

GERMANY BELIEVES LOAN PLAN ASSURED

Berlin, Oct. 8 (A.P.).—American, English and Continental participation in the $200,000,000 Dawes plan loan to Germany to insure its flotation is now viewed as a certainty in German official circles. Discussing the importance of a loan, Chancellor Marx said: "Both the German people and the government are keenly interested in a successful conclusion of the negotiations now under way in London. The German people sincerely desire to accomplish enforcement of the Daws plan."

Dorchester Church Calls Weis

The Rev. Frederick Lewis Weis, formerly of Cranston, R. I., has accepted a call to the pulpit of the Third Unitarian Church in Dorchester, Mass. Mr. Weis has just completed two years of study in the University of Strasbourg, France.

Man Sleeps Like Log—Eats Anything

Was Once a Wreck From Gas on Stomach But Adlerika Helps Him

"I suffered from gas on the stomach so that I couldn't keep food down and tossed in bed all night. After taking one bottle Adlerika (intestinal antiseptic) I can eat anything and sleep like a log." (Signed) R. C. Miller.

Intestinal Antiseptic.

There is now offered to the public a liquid preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a complete system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adlerika, acts as follows:

It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here.

It cleans out BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes foul matter which poisoned the system for months. It brings out all gases, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerika draws from the intestinal canal—matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much MORE foul matter it brings out which was poisoning you. In slight disorders, such as occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach or sick headache, one spoonful Adlerika ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary in cases of obstinate constipation and long standing stomach trouble, preferably under direction of your physician.

Reports from Physicians.

"I have found nothing in my 50 years' practice to excel Adlerika." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver.

"I congratulate you on the good effect from Adlerika since I prescribed it." (Signed) Dr. L. Langlois.

"I use Adlerika in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose." (Signed) Dr. F. M. P. (Name withheld by request).

"Adlerika is the best in my entire 37 years' experience." (Signed) Dr. G. Eggers.

"Cannot describe awful IMPURITIES eliminated from my system (by Adlerika). Feel better than for 20 years." (Signed) J. E. Puckett.

Adlerika is a big surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines, because of its quick, pleasant and COMPLETE action. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

SHOW OFFERS MODERN VIEW OF HEREAFTER

'Outward Bound' Offers Keen Humor and Serious Vein at Plymouth Theatre

By NICHOLAS YOUNG

If the human passage through the pearly gates follows the course laid down by Sutton Vane's "Outward Bound," the future may safely be left to take care of itself. Of course, a certain amount of contrite spirit, honest humility will go a long way toward lightening the burden of final judgement, but as you stepped into the hereafter at the Plymouth last evening there was evidence of more cheer than sorrow—even for the hardened sinner of the play.

Coming out of the play-shop of London, there was good excuse for the non-Volsteadian flavor in Mr. Vane's play, and in spite of external appearances, in which an odd collection of departed folk groped about in mental darkness and an overwhelming doubt, things turned out rather well for everybody concerned. There was a happy absence of sombre tone to "Outward Bound." For the most part it was light and airy, pleasantly philosophical and constantly impressive. If Mr. Vane is correct—and who knows that he is wrong?—the plunge into the hereafter is not accompanied by wailing and the gnashing of teeth. Far from it.

In the lounge, or smoke room of a luxurious liner you discovered the assembled characters on their mysterious journey. And the bar, in the hands of a faithful and efficient steward, was open to all who needed its comfort. When the stern tidings that they were all dead sifted through the minds of the bewildered passengers the play was well on its way. Here was the pompous and successful man of affairs still clinging to the thought that he must be the leader of things, the offensive and not over virtuous woman of culture, the simple little scrub woman, the wastrel who kept the steward busy serving fiery fluids and an amusing little clergyman—all headed for one destination, the world beyond. Add to these strange creatures a boy and girl who had attempted their own lives and all but succeeded—half ways, the author called them—and you come face to face with dramatic novelty that appears well able to proceed under its own power.

An outstanding character, the examiner, was forcefully played by Whitford Kane. He checked the passenger list and sent the travelers on their various ways. Herbert Heywood was a steward of parts, Charlotte Granville was amusing as the ultra-fashionable Mrs. Cliveden-Banks, Minnie Dupree made a pathetic Mrs. Midgett, Tom Nesbitt revealed the ministerel mind when confronted with the great adventure, and Eugene Powers strutted through the play in the accepted manner of the hard boiled business man of fiction. Leonard Mudie turned in an impressivve performance as the profligate youth, and the half ways, rose to the occasion with a fine exhibition of acting.

The free strain of comedy that flowed through "Outward Bound" did not, at any moment, take liberties with the thoughtful character of the play. There was keen amusement in the characters and in the situations—there was also an invitation to serious thinking.

SECRET PARLEY IN WALTHAM STRIKE

Peace Conference Held With Watch Company Officials After State Board Meeting

Officials of the Waltham Watch Company and represetativens of the union went into secret conference today in an attempt to end the strike of 2,500 operatives.

The conference was an outgrowth of a meeting of the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration which started in Waltham City Hall where many watchmakers gathered to listen that it was transferred to the auditorium of the South Junior High School.

There Chairman Edward Fisher of the board asked what suggestions there were. Thomas F. Vahey, counsel for the strikers, said he would suggest that they and the company officials go into secret conference and make a real effort to get together.

Attorney Joseph Wentworth, for the company, said he was agreeable to the plan.

In the conference which immediately was begun the company was represented by President Frederick C. Dumaine, Superintendent I. E. Boucher and vice-president Jacob Frizedter. President Ernest Faulkner of the union and several other officers represented the strikers.

"Shall I discharge him for it?"

ANDREWS, senior partner of the firm, was in a quandary. One of his salesmen, an engaging young fellow and possessing the finest approach to prospective purchasers, simply failed to make any kind of a showing at all.

In a confidential talk with him one afternoon, Andrews discovered the reason. Yet he didn't know whether to tell him about it or simply discharge the man. What would you have done?

* * * *

You, yourself, rarely know when you have halitosis (unpleasant breath). That's the insidious thing about it. And even your closest friends won't tell you.

Sometimes, of course, halitosis comes from some deep-seated organic disorder that requires professional advice. But usually—and fortunately—halitosis is only a local condition that yields to the regular use of Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle. It is an interesting thing that this well-known antiseptic that has been in use for years for surgical dressings, possesses these unusual properties as a breath deodorant.

Test the remarkable deodorizing effects of Listerine this way: Rub a little onion on your fingers. Then apply Listerine and note how quickly the onion odor disappears.

This safe and long-trusted antiseptic has dozens of different uses; note the little circular that comes with every bottle. Your druggist sells Listerine in the original brown package only—three sizes: three ounce, seven ounce and fourteen ounce. Buy the large size for economy.—*Lambert Pharmacal Company, Saint Louis, U. ## BLOW ON SKULL MADE MAN FORGER, HE SAYS

Los Angeles, Oct. 8.—Eight years ago a holdup man in Leadville, Col., hit Edward Mayerle on the head with the butt of a pistol and dented his skull, making a forger of him, Mayerle told the judge before whom he recently pleaded guilty to a charge of passing worthless checks.

Today, with the court's consent, surgeons at the Methodist Hospital here will operate on Mayerle's skull in an attempt to undo the work of the holdup man. If they report the operation a success Mayerle's application for probation will be granted.

HERE'S HOW TO GET CHICKIE TEA APRON

Today the first coupon, one of two necessary to secure the Boston American's newest surprise to its readers—the Chickie Tea Apron—is printed in all editions of the American.

Tomorrow—at which time two consecutive coupons will have been printed—the aprons will be ready for all those who wish one. And it is a foregone conclusion, from all indications thus far, that thousands of women—not all houswives either—will want them.

It is hard to express in words the beauty and service of an article as neat and practical as the Chickie tea apron. It must be seen—and worn—to be fully appreciated by your best gown.

Not only is the Chickie Tea Apron the ideal protection and set-off for the tea table, but it is something so attractive that, when thrown on over an ordinary house dress, will make the lady of the household appear all dressed up. And that's a lot, in a crisis, as every woman knows.

The new Boston American surprise is remarkably inexpensive, beautiful and serviceable though it is. Two coupons, clipped from consecutive dates of the Boston American, together with a quarter, two dimes and and four pennies, gives you an apron.

Try the Chickie Tea Apron on your tea party.

EXCLUSIVE CADILLAC CUSTOM BODIES

Great interest was shown at the opening of Cadillac Style Salon yesterday at the salesroom of the Cadillac Automobile Company of Boston, where for the first time the new Cadillac custom-built bodies were introduced.

With the choice of twenty different color combinations designed by the foremost engineers in the country, and the choices of cloths and mohair velvets, Cadillac has assumed the leadership in offering the most exclusive custom bodies at prices never before approached.

Standards for the interiors call for consistent development of the drawing room atmosphere by the use of specially selected crystal plate glass for the windows, first selections of highest grade mohair and broadcloths for the upholstery in shades to harmonize with the exterior, walnut trimmings on doors and above instrument board inlaid with polished burl walnut panels edged with pewter bands, dome and pillar lamps, door and window lift handles of modified classic design, assist cord of silk robe on rear door posts, and headlinings of the same material as the rest of the interior.

26 MILES TO GALLON ON RUN OF OVERLAND

The result of the 125 hour nonstop run in a stock Overland Coupe-Sedan starting Sept. 29th and ending Oct. 4th indicates the economy of Overland automobiles.

The motor was run continuously for 125 hours and the car was driven 2432.2 miles. Only 91 gallons of gasolene, 13 quarts of oil, and 7½ quarts of water were used. Few cars can approach this economy record of 26.7 miles per gallon of gasolene and 187 miles per quart of oil.

Fourteen different drivers drove the car continually, over all road conditions and in city traffic. There was no mechanical trouble whatever.

OBLESS STARS TO START OWN COMPANY

Repertory in Boston will not cease with the collapse of the Henry Jewett Repertory Company, a former member of that company announced today.

E. E. Clive, who for seven years has been associated with Jewett, has taken over the company, which will positively open next Monday night, at the Copley Theatre, with the play, "Bed Rock," by Eden Philpotts and McDonald Hastings.

The same actor, speaking for all the players, made a sharp reply to Mrs. Jewett's accusation that they were ingrates who had no interest in the aims and ideals of the Jeffs.

"To begin with," he said, "whatever suggestion was put to the players, being Equity Players, they could not accept the offer without submitting it to the Equity. Their answer was on no account to appear on Monday night unless the two weeks' salraies were guaranteed, as per contract.

"The two weeks' salaries were due in lieu of notice that the company was not going to continue, and amount to about $3,000. The Equity lawyer is now bringing suit for that amount.

"The suggestion was made to us by the Jewetts that the theatre be kept open and that after the work-

Chevrolet Six Per Cent. Purchase Plan Proves Boon to Many Buyers

A fundamental advance in the merchandising of motor cars is evidenced in the new Chevrolet 6% Purchase Certificate Plan announced today. This copyright plan is devised to help the individual to save money to finance the purchase of a new Chevrolet, and at the same time provide reasonable rate of interest.

The prospective purchaser of a new car calls at any of the retail showrooms of the Sills-Chevrolet Company, Chevrolet distributor for New England, and makes a small first payment. A Chevrolet 6 per cent. purchase certificate is then issued to the customer. After this first payment has been made, either weekly or monthly payments, as convenient to the customer, may be made. These payments are credited on the certificate and draw 6 per cent. interest.

One of the largest insurance companies in the world has issued a policy protecting every certificate holder against loss and protects the funds in the bank. It is a sweeping policy of protection that indemnifies every Chevrolet certificate purchaser against the least possibility of loss.

LINSCOTT GETS NEW REO BUS

A new nineteen passenger Sedan-Type Reo Bus was received by Linscott Motor Company this week. This is similar to the Reo Bus which, a month ago, completed the trans-continental round trip from the factories at Lansing, Mich., to New York city, thence to San Francisco, and back to Lansing again, all the way by road under its own power. It was the first time any motor bus has made the coast-to-coast trip. Three of these busses have already been purchased in the Boston territory.

TINNEY MOVES; IMOGENE TAKES HIS FLAT

London, Oct. 8 (I.N.S.).—This was moving day for Imogene Wilson, friend of Frank Tinney, but she did not go to Paris as previously announced. Instead she moved into the flat at No. 25 Germain street, previously occupied by Tinney, who has moved elsewhere, keeping his new home secret.

Friends of Tinney said that Miss Wilson is still looking for a London engagement.

Miss Wilson wore a black eye for several days, giving rise to reports that her caveman friend had again been "saying it with knuckles."

"Reports that I gave her a black eye are all bunk," said Tinney. "Honest, she had to wear a patch over one eye for several days. There was something wrong with it, but it is all right now."

Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

These Three Letters Prove It

Lowell, Mass.—"I am sending you a few lines to let you know what good your medicine has done for me. I want you to let every one know that it has helped me in nervous troubles. I have four children and you know there is a lot to do where children are. They would come in from school and they would start telling me about their little troubles but I could not stand it. I had to send them away. I could not even walk on the street alone I was so nervous. I found one of your books and read it and then I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got it and had taken one bottle when I saw a change in myself. I was surprised. The children can talk all they want to now and it does not bother me. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOSEPH LEMERE, 34 South Street, Lowell, Mass.

Felt Like A New Woman

Springfield, Missouri.—"For four or five months I was run-down, nervous, my back ached and I did not feel like doing a thing. Sometimes my legs ached and felt like they would break and I had a hurting in my sides. I had been reading in the newspapers the letters of other women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the advertising of it appealed to me so I bought some and saw results in almost no time. I had hardly been able to do my own work and after taking the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I recommend it to my friends who have troubles like I did, and hope they will find the same results."—Mrs. M. CARPENTER, 607 W. Chase Street, Springfield, Missouri.

40 Years Old, Feels Like 20

Hagerstown, Md.—"I was very bad off with backache, a bearing-down feeling in my body and a pain in my left side. I could not be on my feet at times and once I was so bad I walked bent over to one side for three weeks. My sister read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me a bottle. I got so much relief that I took more until I was well. I am 40 years old and feel like 20. I am sure this medicine will help all women."—Mrs. MARY E. SANDY, 436 W. Franklin Street, Hagerstown, Md.

Over 100,000 women have so far replied to our question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

98 per cent of these replies are "Yes."

That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take this medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it.

All druggists are having increased sales of this medicine.

PIRATES LOOT STEAMER OF $250,000

Band of 34 Reigns Two Days on Craft Thirty Miles From Hongkong

Amoy, China, Oct. 8 (I.N.S.)—Panic and terror stalked the decks of the passenger steamer Ningshin while a gang of freebooters looted her rich cargo in a two day reign of cutlass and pistol as recounted today by white passengers on the vessel's arrival from Shanghai.

Two native members of the crew fell before the pirates' fire. Loot taken from passengers and cargo totaled $250,000, including thirty cases of silver.

Seven foreign passengers escaped injury although robbed of money and valuables. The band of thirty-four pirates boarded the vessel at Shanghai. Three other Chinese passengers [illegible] on the Ningshin.

The ship was [illegible] off [illegible] when the pirates struck. Stationed at strategic points about the vessel, the freebooters cast off the guise of coolies and whipped out guns and knives. Pistol shots backed up their command to [illegible] re [illegible].

A native quartermaster at the wheel [illegible] to the deck dead. A sailor fell. In a [illegible] skirmish command of the vessel passed into the hands of the raiders, whose leader ordered the captain to sail [illegible] ward along the coast [illegible] Bias Bay.

In this shelter less than thirty miles from Hongkong the band looted the ship and its passengers. When the vessel had been cleaned of valuables the pirates put off in junks which had been moored in the bay.

WOMEN ARE URGED TO MARCH FOR PROHIBITION

Women, as well as men, should be willing to march on October [illegible] as a demonstration in favor of the referendum which provides for harmonizing the State law with the Federal Prohibition Law, according to Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of Beverly, president of the Women's National Committee for Law Enforcement.

Mrs. Peabody in appealing for women to join the demonstration march declares, "Loyal, patriotic, thinking women will find it a joy to give their testimony to this public march of allegiance through the streets of the great capitals of the United States."

Fully 25,000 women are expected to parade to the State House.

Three elderly women were at work picking over papers when flames burst from around the elevator on the first floor. Hodgkins sounded a box alarm.

Miss Mary O'Donnell of No. 266 East Cottage street, also saw the spurt of flame. She rushed to her place of employment and told her employer, George H. Richard, a roofer, who telephoned fire headquarters.

WOMEN CARRIED OUT.

Meanwhile, the three women workers in the building were carried out through the smoke to the street by volunteer rescuers.

A second and [illegible] alarm were sounded when [illegible] apparatus arrived, [illegible] Dudley from Mason street.

Miss Myra Wilson, principal of the lower grades in the Emerson School, signalled her teachers to sound the fire drill and the 300 tots of the three lower grades marched out in orderly fashion and were dismissed for the day.

In the High [illegible] School, adjoining the Emerson School and housing upper grammar grades, the pupils remained at their studies.

WINNER OF TODAY'S BATTLE WILL "CASH IN," SAYS FLATLEY

GOSLIN IS HERO OF SERIES

By NICK FLATLEY

New York, Oct. 8.—Wh[illegible] club wins today will just about [illegible] away with the cash and g[illegible]

Bad chucking has [illegible] sponsible for much of the bad [illegible] ball, especially on the part of the Giants. The judgment of the [illegible] mind McGraw has been harsh[illegible] cised in this section of the [illegible] it's apparent to the most [illegible] observer that the National Leaguers aren't being [illegible] are supposed to be.

They have been very poor [illegible] bases, and haven't [illegible] pitchers with sufficient [illegible]

Yesterday's game was the last in which the players share. Twenty-five per cent of their share of $355,478.19 will go to the clubs that finished second and third in the two major leagues. This leaves the Senators and Giants $266,610 to divide, 60 per cent going to the winner of the world's series and 40 per cent to the losers.

Figuring that each club will divide its portion in twenty-five shares, the members of the winning team will draw down $6,398 each, and the members of the losing team $4,266.

TRYING TO GET OPPONENT FOR LEONARD

New York, Oct. 8.—Three, possibly four lightweights may be [illegible] by the State Athletic Commission [illegible] for the right to [illegible] Benny Leonard for the light-weight crown. Chairman Brower [illegible] that [illegible] lightweight [illegible] board [illegible] failed to work out satisfactor[illegible]

Sid Barbarian, Jack Bernstein and Tommy O'Brien have [illegible] for a meeting with Leonard. [illegible] has fought his way to [illegible] and they are legitimate [illegible] pointers.

Barbarian holds a decision over [illegible] Bernstein has [illegible] Kid [illegible] who [illegible] was [illegible] over Barbarian. [illegible] decision hardly seemed a fair [illegible]

Tommy O'Brien [illegible] has [illegible] more than any of the light-weight contenders in establishing himself as worthy of consideration. In addition to his victories over [illegible] Johnny Reisig, Pete [illegible] and others he [illegible] two of the lightweight [illegible] Childs [illegible] and Billy Gilmore.

[illegible] was stopped [illegible] in Providence last week [illegible] was [illegible] matchmaker Lew R[illegible] as the most peculiar [illegible] in all his fifteen [illegible] of experience.

"Tommy nailed Gilm[illegible] the button," explained Ray[illegible] "and Billy went over on his back and was so completely out [illegible] snored."

"Huh," chimed in D[illegible] all my fighters d[illegible] ing at home.

COACH AT FORDHAM NOT YET SATISFIED

New York, Oct. 8.—Dissatisfied with the showing against the Manhattan [illegible] gan [illegible] eleven spent a [illegible] up [illegible]

The [illegible] lowed by a short [illegible] on the [illegible] workout was a light one, but the M[illegible] expect to get down to [illegible] afternoon in preparation for the Boston College contest, which will be the Maroon's first real test this season.

In spite of the five touchdowns [illegible] against the Little Manhattan eleven, the Maroon did not look [illegible] against the Seventh.

Yesterday's practice session was a light preliminary to the workout which will come today and which will usher in the hard Fall cam[illegible]

FOSTER SANFORD'S SON ENTERS PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—Foster Sanford, Jr., son of the former Yale player and Rutgers coach, entered Penn. The son of the ex-Yale guard is a young giant and will try for the freshman team. Like his father he is also a lineman, and played at Kent School in Connecticut for the last few years. Sanford brought the boy to the university and late in the afternoon visited Head Coach Lou Young at Franklin Field. Penn worked behind locked gates in preparation for the Swarthmore game.

DORCHESTER AND HYDE PARK WIN GRID GAMES

Good and poor football was provided in the double-header between Dorchester High vs. [illegible] Boston High and Hyde Park High vs. Brighton High at Braves Field. Dorchester won 13 to 7 and Hyde Park beat Brighton High in the [illegible] High [illegible] contest 13 to 0.

VIDZ WINS EUROPEAN LIGHTWEIGHT CROWN

Paris, Oct. 8.—Lucien Vidz won the lightweight [illegible] by defeating [illegible] in a 20-round [illegible]

McAdoo Comfortable

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—William Gibbs McAdoo was resting comfortably today at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he underwent an operation for the removal of gravel from the bladder.

KAPLAN AND DIAZ IN GOTHAM BOUT

New York, Oct. 8.—Forty rounds of fighting will be brought off at the show to be held at Madison Square Garden on next Friday night. In the three ten-round [illegible] "Kid" Kaplan of Meriden [illegible] clash with Angel Diaz, the [illegible] weight of Cuba, in the main [illegible] while in the other two [illegible] Billy Henry of Chicago meets [illegible] Kramer of Philadelphia, while Irish Johnny Curtin of Jersey City tackles Charley "Phil" Rosenberg. Jack Snyder tackles Joe Souza in a six round go, while Charley Kohler meets Murray Layton for four rounds.

SO. BOSTON ELEVEN LIKELY TO CONTINUE VICTORIES TODAY

MECHANICS PROBABLE VICTIM

By FRED C. LANE.

South Boston High has bursted into prominence with a football team. The tidings are gladdening to the hearts of the scholastic fans of the Peninsular who have been in the custom of figuring the points scored against their team.

This afternoon the same team from the southern end of the city that caused all sorts of comment to be passed as a result of the first showing against Brighton High meets Coach Joe Dunn's Mechanic Arts team in one end of a double bill at Braves Field.

They are favored to win this melee from the heavy Mechanic team because of the sterling offensive power that Coach Joe Green has drilled into his squad of husky players.

Coach Green has been working for four years for such a team. He has finally brought together an aggregation of players who lack the qualifications for stardom but who have shown enough talent as players to be considered the equal of any in the city high school league.

For instance Joe B[illegible], a quarterback and one of the heaviest [illegible] calling the signals. G[illegible] is left end and a white [illegible] Savisky plays at guard. Stlauskas, center; F[illegible] and P[illegible], right guard [illegible] are [illegible] ends that bear the brunt of battle like seasoned veterans although they are playing [illegible] game as regulars for the [illegible].

It is by far the best team that has represented South Boston since 1917 [illegible] the school won the District championship. At the present [illegible] with Trade School out of the league they should have little trouble annexing that title again this season.

Everett Grid Team Goes Out on Strike

"No medical treatment, no football team."

With words to that effect the Everett High School football squad refused to report for football practice when they received cards which they interpreted as announcing that only initial treatment would be provided the members of the squad and team hereafter free.

The squad had reported to the locker room to change into football togs when, according to one member, they found cards from the athletic committee, announcing that while a physician was provided by the committee to examine all candidates for the team and to give the initial treatment when a man is injured, the committee no longer assumed further responsibility.

There was a general howl from the squad and all went on strike. Coach George Brickley, brother of the famous Charley, went to the field alone and while the boys cheeredw he kicked the ball around.

Scholastic Chatter

"Babe" Fitzgerald, formerly of Everett High and Art Campbell, star end on Lynn English during the season of 1923, are playing a brilliant game for the cause of Westbrook Seminary. Campbell's long run in the first half of Saturday's game with the Maine freshmen put his team in a position to score its only touchdown.

Ray Pendleton's Nashua High club though not as formidable as was last year's eleven, will be heard from before the season comes to a close. For green men they have showed vast improvement over the contest they played against Lowell High in their first start.

There is more than Haverhill High seeking the services of Coach Bill Broderick. We can name offhand three schools in the North Shore League that would sign him up and pay him his asking at a moment's notice.

Conditions are not what they should be at the Witch City, even though Coach Broderick has put the school on its feet financially and otherwise. Sprinklings of gloom are in all cities, however, which is some consolation to the dean of all scholastic tutors.

Marblehead is centering its sole attention on the game with Salem on Saturday. Followers at the Neck feel that the school team will have accomplished its end, even though they lose the remaining games on the schedule, if they but win over the Witches.

The contest itself is the leading attraction in the State. The rivalry in vogue overshadows that of any scholastic game on the big list slated for the week end.

Beverly fans will do well to hold off criticizing the performance of the high school team. It well to remember that Coach Marty Donovan is handling the squad for his first year and in a short spell of four weeks can hardly become acquainted with the unknown power or ability of his players.

Moe and Joe They Get the Dough--Sometimes

Moe stepped on a pretty banana peel yesterday. He smacked in a grand on Martha Martin and if the filly had been rigged with rubber reins, she would have breezed. However, Moe takes the good with the bad and with the aid of Little Buck's silent rooting expects to win today. Buck will not be at the track and that will help. B. R. to date $20,185.21.

CASEY READS RIOT ACT TO TUFTS TEAM

"Beat Bates" is the slogan at Tufts where Coach Casey [illegible] to make a general shakeup before the Bates combat this week end at Lewiston, Me.

Eddie Casey

After making a thirty yard march up the field then failing to score on four tries, [illegible] the Casey coached brigade played as schoolboys. Several athletes are facing the problem of the lack of condition.

Hard conditioning practice and back to the grass drill tackling the dummy will be on the program this week. Work and plenty of it is Casey's motto and Tufts will do a lot better in the future games.

Coach Walter Leary and Casey are not discouraged after getting away to a poor start. After a few changes are made they say that Tufts will cut quite a figure in football ranks.

Bates will be represented by a fast backfield and Tufts will face plenty of opposition. Charles Ray, colored sensation, is rated as one of the greatest backs in the Pine Tree State.

Amateur Heavies for Feature at Dilboy Post's Next Show

The next show of the Dilboy Post V. F. W. will be held in K. of C. Hall, Highland avenue, Somerville, Thursday, October 16 and will consist of the following classes 118, 126, 1[illegible], 147 and heavyweight.

This latter class is expected to bring out a lot of ambitious heavyweights in view of the fact that Tom Kirby has deserted the amateurs for the professional ranks.

Entries for this tournament should be forwarded to Dilboy Post, V. F. W. Room 3, K. of C. Building, Somerville, not later than Tuesday, October 14.

UNITED HUNTS TO HOLD MEET AT BELMONT PARK

The annual Fall race meet of the United Hunts Racing Association will be held at Belmont Park November 1 and 4.

The program for both days will include two new features: first an open steeplechase with $2,500 added at two and a half miles and the Brenton Stakes of $2,500 for two-year-olds at seven furlongs. The [illegible] closed with 148 entries. There will be three flat races each day in addition to the event already mentioned.

GOSLIN CREDITS BABE FOR HIS HITTING STREAK

New York, Oct. 8.—According to Goose Goslin, the four hits that he made [illegible] really to be credited to Babe Ruth. "Babe had me on the pan before the game," said the Goose. "Told me I was swinging wrong and that I should change my style. I took his advice, practiced before the game, drove a couple into the pavilion and had a good day afterwards. The Babe's dope was all to the mustard."

49,243 PERSONS PAID TO SEE FOURTH GAME

New York, Oct. 8.—Attendance and receipts figures for the fourth game were officially announced as follows:

Ban Brother Act Boxers

Fans Near K. O. at Tame Bout!

AFTER several months of pretty fair fight food the local boxing fans have been handed another sour dish.

The Martin-Wolgast "slugging fest" was little more than a petting party. The far-famed "Cannon Ball" was just a blank cartridge.

The few fans who attended this late afternoon tea were the only ones to take a licking, and while this part of the program is an old story, it is up to the Boxing Commission to dust off the big stick and get busy.

Both boxers have good reputations in other cities, but they must have forgotten—intentionally or otherwise—to pack them with their other luggage in their Boston trip.

It seems strange that certain boxers perform their poorest before Boston fans and a little swift and severe action by the Boxing Board will prove a sure and speedy remedy for this brand of bunk artists.

Let these slacker sluggers feel the full effect of our Bay State ban—and have the boards of other States follow suit.

A few lean weeks will bring the most of these brother act stars to their knees.

JACK (TWIN) SULLIVAN IS TO ACT AS COACH FOR SHARKEY

By JACK CONWAY

JACK (TWIN) SULLIVAN, one of the best of the old school of boxers has been engaged by Johnny Buckley to coach Jack Sharkey, Roxbury heavyweight, in the fine points of the fistic game. Sullivan will box three rounds with Sharkey each day and also give him a long drill in the fine points of the ring game.

Sharkey, a youth of twenty-two, recently attracted national attention when he scored impressive victories over Floyd Johnson, Homer Smith and Al Roberts. He then was stopped by Quintin Romero Rojas. This reverse was attributed to lack of proper training and a weak defense against the Chilean's right hand uppercut.

The veteran Jack Twin will teach Sharkey [illegible] ing to g[illegible] the four [illegible] command of the [illegible] the ordinary [illegible]

Sharkey [illegible] Lewis [illegible] in a return bout in [illegible] latter part of the month. Sharkey figures that if in the best of condition he w[illegible] the South American.

FEARS FOR LIFE OF JACOB E. DAUBERT

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 8.—Friends of Jacob E. Daubert, first baseman and captain of the Cincinnati Reds, were alarmed when word came from the hospital that the veteran infielder had failed to rally from a recent operation he underwent for appendicitis and that his condition was serious.

Dr. H. H. Hines said the patient's condition was due to his being in [illegible] condition for several months before he entered the hospital.

HARVARD AND AMHERST SOCCER STARS TO MEET

Following three weeks of strenuous practice, the lineup of the Harvard soccer team which will face [illegible] here Saturday in the first game of the season has been decided upon.

The Super Again

The radio department is piled high with work and it will be impossible to get out the data on the improvement owing to unforeseen difficulties. We deeply regret that the radio public must be put off again, but various difficulties have come up preventing it. We are working hard and will do our best to get them out next Thursday.

HOOVER DENIES MONOPOLY CAN HIT RADIO

Washington, Oct. 8 (I N S).—"No monopoly exists in the radio industry [illegible] United States today—and none [illegible] will exist."

This declaration was made today [illegible] the third national radio con[illegible] Secretary of Commerce [illegible] reply to widespread pro[illegible] against any monopolistic con[illegible] of wireless communication.

Hoover said the radio industry could not be developed for the maximum benefit of all the people if a monopoly was permitted.

"With 530 broadcasting stations in operation, and with four or five methods of interconnection proposed, there is no danger of development of a monopoly, in my opinion," Hoover said.

Among the important developments looking to the elimination of the interference menace was the declaration of George H. Davis, of the American Steamship Owners' Association and the Boston Chamber of Commerce that the shipping interests are willing to relinquish use of the 300-metre wave length on which much popular broadcasting is done.

Davis wanted an allocation of a 600-metre wave length for distress signals at sea, and up to 1,000 metres for general use of ships and some higher lengths and around 2,500 metres for special purposes. He protested against abolishment of the maritime spark sets, saying it would cost the ship owners $50,000,000 since about 10,000 steamers are now equipped with spark apparatus.

C. W. Horn, representing the Westinghouse Electric Company, said that development of the short wave length for interstation transmission was among the greatest improvement in radio in the last year. He said that in spite of heavy storms the story of the Wills-Firpo prize fight was distributed from New York to every section of the country by radio.

U. S. NAVY BAND FROM WNYC TONIGHT

Tonight WNYC will present a concert by the Navy Band. Only a small reduction in the ranks will be necessary so that the men with music stands and ponderous instruments can all be accommodated comfortably in the studio at the Municipal Building.

Last Night

By THE LISTENER

In listening to WEEI during their broadcast from Mechanics Building, a great many "squeals" were noticeable. Many of these squeals undoubtedly were produced by the now obsolete type of receiver known as the Westinghouse RC set. Such interference made by these sets is easily recognized by the flute-like whistles which run up and down the scale, each whistle with a definite pitch. These whistles of varying tones are caused by running the tickler up and down, a notch at a time. Each notch on the dial cuts in a different number of turns in the detector plate circuit, and if more notches are cut in than are necessary, this set becomes a miniature transmitter, and is a serious offender. Some time ago thousands of these sets were sold in Boston, with a set of tubes known as the WD12 type. These tubes operate very satisfactorily for a considerable length of time, and while the actual life of them is difficult to estimate, a year is considered very fair. When the life of a WD12 tube expires, the filament does not necessarily have to be burned out. Many of these tubes still burn brightly, and yet their usefulness has expired. Undoubtedly many of the people who are using these Westinghouse RC sets have run the tubes to the extent of their life and do not realize it. When such is the case their natural tendency is to frantically run the dials up and down in an effort to tune something in. If your RC set does not have the volume it formerly had, a new set of tubes will undoubtedly solve the problem.

For a program of extreme clarity and pleasant tone, honors were undoubtedly due WNAC, with their broadcast of William Dodge's famous Boston American Orchestra. In scooting over the dial I was unable to find anything to compare with it for smoothness. WGY was broadcasting selections by the WGY orchestra, which were very fine, but they will have to dig their spurs in deeper to eclipse our local talent.

Conditions during the evening were good, although not quite up to the best we have experienced this season. By careful tuning I pulled in several stations on the higher waves, but had to work the set so near the regenerating point it was no fun. Code interference was noticeable, and very bothersome at intervals during the WEEI broadcast from Mechanics Building. This code is caused by the 300-meter harmonic in WBF, the United Fruit station's wave. Many fans have asked about this code on WEEI's wave, and have wondered what it was. It is expected that this interference will be eliminated by the engineers of the United Fruit station, as they have been working on the matter for some time.

RADIO FOR THE PEOPLE, SAYS COOLIDGE

Washington, Oct. 8.—President Coolidge, in a talk to delegates to the third national radio conference, who called at the White House today, said government control of the air must be maintained "with the widest degree of freedom."

As a result of its possibilities, he said, the radio had a most intricate relationship to the government, adding that Secretary Hoover had insisted that the government retain control of the ether, that "the fundamental rights may be kept in the hands of the people." It naturally followed, he declared, that rules and regulations were necessary to prevent confusion and improve the opportunities afforded by the science.

Mr. Coolidge impressed on the delegates "the great responsibility on the part of those who transmit material over the radio that there should be no malice or slander" through these channels.

Use McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets

"I know George and Alice both need Cod Liver Oil, and need it badly as all thin, puny, run down kids do. But it gives me the most horrible shivers just to think of them taking the horrible stuff."

"Instead of the nasty tasting, vile smelling oil itself why don't you be up to date and give them McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets? It's the new way to take Cod Liver Oil—they are as easy to take as candy—won't upset their stomachs and surely do help sick, ailing people to get well again."

"Have pity on the poor kids, mother, and take my advice—you can get the original and genuine McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets at any real drug store—and 60 tablets cost only 60 cents. Be sure and get McCoy's, mother—everyone says they do help the sick kiddies to grow strong and robust."

Boston Girl's Impassioned Love Story and Her Struggle to Live It Down and Come Back

"I'VE worked with her now for several years on all kinds of cases. I can assure you [illegible] speaks in the highest terms. When I [illegible] a nurse [illegible] to sacrifice herself at all times—to forget that she needs to sleep or eat—I call on Helena Bryce."

Emily Burdell pushed her chair—then a glass clinked against a plate—a thin trickle of wine went redly over the white cloth. David saw that it came from the glass of Barry Dunne. He took his napkin and mopped it. Barry's eyes followed the motion of David's hand—there was no blood in his cheeks.

The man who [illegible] David was [illegible]

[illegible]

"Indeed—I [illegible] a weak [illegible] them Dr. Ramm [illegible] a girl who has had such [illegible] experience is as good as another?"

"I think she may be [illegible]. For my part I would rate much higher the girl who has known one real love affair than those who go out [illegible] way in a [illegible] adulgences."

Like a Shock

The man laughed. "Perhaps! But how many of us would [illegible] to her. Would you recommend the girl with such a past [illegible]—say for your best friend?"

David [illegible] then back [illegible] was my best [illegible], Mr. M[illegible] no greater [illegible] to [illegible] Helena Bryce."

It [illegible] a [illegible] owed [illegible] Barry Dunne [illegible] arms.

[illegible] a laugh. "How about wishing it on yourself, David?" That would be the test."

He glanced over quietly at Marsha [illegible] looked at Barry Dunne and his voice flashed like a knife down through the room. Emily Burdell stood up: "Not to myself, Marsha—I could wish no greater good fortune than to marry such a girl as Helena Bryce! Few men will ever marry as well!"

Emily standing at the table tapped her hand. Ila Moore's eyes were hot, her cheeks crimson. Emily said: "You are very entertain, David—and very amusing. . . . Well, I guess we have quite discussed Miss Bryce—and her noble scheme—we may leave her to you men."

David rose. He bowed to his aunt. He said: "Emily—thank you!"

The Stronger Way

David bowed to his [illegible] his eyes and his thoughts were on the ashen, haggard face of the man across the table—the man who had taken Helena's [illegible] and now listened mutely with his head lowered and his eyes miserably glued to his plate while that pathetic love was desecrated.

Then Barry Dunne [illegible] less motion ran his hand through the thick, red hair and pressed from the table. His eyes were dulled and burning. David noted the quick, furtive escape. A sudden revulsion for the scene and its stupid hypocrisy seized him.

The hot faces of the girls, their low cut gowns, their hands twined in the hands of men, their whole sensuous makeup struck along his nerves in a passion of contempt and revolt.

Gladys Ross was now [illegible] the chair with her partner, her cheek pressed on his other [illegible] remained in the room, crowding into groups, smoking, calling one another aside for a drink, telling highly colored stories. Young married girls exchanged husbands with a bright and laughing familiarity.

Frederica Moll, the thin, elongated girl who started the attack on Helena, was still leaning on the table. A man with an arm about her drank from her glass. He ran his palm across her shoulders.

Two other couples began to dance. In David's excited state the dipping and swaying of their figures seemed abominable. Phrases formed in his mind—names to call these girls—terms to crystallize their license.

Grew Cynical

His thoughts grew cynical. Squanderers! Playing safe and calling that doing right. [illegible] the spirit, but saving flesh. They spill the wine, much or little, but always holding to the flask with this meaningless symbol [illegible] themselves and others to believe that the treasure remains. He said to himself "technically virtuous," and this was the least vicious of the words with which his mind now designated the promiscuous and almost unconscious fan[illegible].

The thought again of Miller's remark: "Do you really consider a girl who has had such an experience as good as another?" He wanted to laugh, loud and mockingly.

Dulcie ran her fingers under his cuff, pulling him to the edge of her [illegible]. "You laugh," [illegible] asked David. "Aren't you going to take me home? Why did you go and get mother [illegible] up comparing [illegible] Miss Bryce to you [illegible] and that [illegible] held an age [illegible]. "Oh [illegible]" But she [illegible] and awake. She has no one. And she can't [illegible] to pass in the night alone. I [illegible] to stay, David."

[illegible]

She seemed so white and slim, the same [illegible] her face [illegible] turned it to him, a radiance. And this [illegible] seem impalpable as a [illegible] faded [illegible] pure apple [illegible] faces in his hand.

He was unnerved and turned his head. "Tomorrow afternoon then. You will, Helena. It is the last time I'll ask the favor."

She felt suddenly as though the world were falling and only he and the summons in his eyes remained. She answered "Tomorrow afternoon then."

It was Saturday. She was to have lunch with Janina. When they met Janina's black eyes were brilliant with triumph. She took Chickie's arm and walked along with a jaunty step.

At Table

But she waited till they were at the lunch table. Just as she unfolded her napkin she leaned over with a sparkling laugh. "Congratulations, old dear! I got down on my knees last night and said 'Hallelujah' seventy times."

Seeing Chickie's blank astonishment Janina's lip curled. "Why hide it, baby? He practically announced to the world last night that you were the only woman on the face of the earth and no one of us was fit to wipe your feet!"

Then Janina told. She repeated the conversations word for word. She omitted neither the red trickling of the wine from Barry's glass and David mopping it up, nor the alarmed heat in Ila's face and the tragic pallor of her husband's.

"I'd go through seven hells, ole thing, to win what you've got!"

THE HELPING HAND

Family in Distress

Helping Hand Editor:

Having read in your paper how so many kind readers have helped needy families, I am writing about one in our neighborhood. The mother is in the hospital at present with appendicitis and the father was lost in the last storm we had, August 26. There are five children, boys 12 and 8 years, girls 5 and 3 years and a baby 6 months old. They had no insurance on the father and have no money. I hope someone will help them out.

MRS. M. C.

Winter Shut-Ins

Helping Hand Editor:

Is there some kind reader who has a discarded radio set, one tube design, that he has tired of or put aside for a better one? I am the father of four small children, living on a woodland farm, earning $1 a day. In the Winter, when the heavy snow comes, we are shut off from the world entirely. We have no form of amusement to pass the long hours away and no money to buy it with, and a radio would surely help to drive away the lonesome hours and be greatly appreciated.

"WHITE MOUNTAINS."

Pair of Skates

Helping Hand Editor:

I have a new pair of girl's ice skates that some girl could get a lot of enjoyment out of this Winter. R. J. G.

Many thanks Mr. G. We know we are going to get lots of replies to this letter, but they will go to the girl sending in the first letter.

Old Lady In Want

Helping Hand Editor:

I am an old lady, very much in need. I can only see a little in one eye. All I have to live on is bread and a little of that. Please help me. I have nothing to wear.

MRS. H. F.

Wants To Go West

Helping Hand Editor:

I am in Boston with two small children, boy 2 and girl 4, deserted by my husband. I wish to get to my mother in California where I will be taken care of and my troubles at an end. I am willing to work in order to earn this money to finance my trip, but it must be a place where I can have my two children with me, as I have no one with whom I can leave them. MRS. M.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

Dr. F. X. Mahoney

Boston Health Commissioner

"IF sun and air can cure certain grave forms of disease, notably tuberculosis, they ought to be able to prevent them," says Dr. Rollier, the accepted authority on the subject of light and air in their relation to human health.

Dr. Mahoney.

Sun and air are just as important to the health and growth of babies as they are to the health and growth of tender plants.

The substance in the human body that corresponds to chloraphyl in plants, is not green but red. It is the red coloring-matter of the blood and is called "haemoglobin."

The baby needs all the haemoglobin it can get because haemoglobin in babies, like chlorophyl in plants, is the carrier of the oxygen from the air, and that is essential, not only for growth, but for the maintenance of life itself.

Therefore, let the baby have all the sunlight possible on all parts of its body.

I do not mean that its whole body is to be exposed to the fierce rays of the sun, for that would be disastrous. White light, even when not filtered through the glass of windows, may reach the body under the protection of shade.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Please tell me about the ........ cure for tuberculosis.

FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

Here's a remarkable fact, now published for the first time:

In the first nine months of this year 389 industrial and twenty-eight railroad companies improved their treatment of stockholders by the payment of extra or initial or in increased or stock dividends, or the like.

* * *

The greatest dividend shower came in the first quarter of the year. No fewer than 185 industrial concerns then took favorable action. In the second quarter 115 industrial companies cheered the hearts of stockholders. In the last quarter eighty-nine industrial companies took generous action.

Nine railroads took favorable dividend action in the first quarter, no fewer than sixteen in the second quarter, and three in the last quarter.

* * *

The record, month by month, reads thus:

| | Indus. | Rail. |
|---|---|---|
| January | 75 | 3 |
| February | 46 | 3 |
| March | 64 | 3 |
| April | 40 | 5 |
| May | 33 | 6 |
| June | 42 | 5 |
| July | 20 | 1 |
| August | 23 | 0 |
| September | 46 | 2 |
| Totals | 389 | 28 |

* * *

The exact nature of the bounty distributed by these companies is shown in this little table:

| Extra Dividends | Industrials | Railroads |
|---|---|---|
| Increased Dividends | 59 | 10 |
| Initial Dividends | 56 | 5 |
| Back Dividends | 48 | 3 |
| Stock Dividends | 38 | 9 |
| Resumed Dividends | 29 | 0 |
| Special Dividends | 8 | 1 |
| Interim Dividends | 1 | 0 |

* * *

Is there significance in the fact that favorable dividend resolutions passed by directorates last month more than equalled the number for July and August combined? This summarizes the dividend happenings during the last quarter.

| Industrials | July | Aug. | Sept. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Extra Dividends | 12 | 11 | 25 |
| Back Dividends | 2 | 4 | 6 |
| Initial Dividends | 1 | 2 | 6 |
| Stock Dividends | 4 | 3 | 2 |
| Resumed Dividends | 1 | 3 | 5 |
| Special Dividends | 0 | 0 | 2 |
| Total | 20 | 23 | 46 |
| Railroads | | | |
| Stock Dividend | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Increased Dividends | 0 | 0 | 2 |
| Total | 1 | 0 | 2 |

* * *

Have all these cheerful dividend announcements stimulated demand for corporation shares?

Apparently, yes.

* * *

Our largest railroad, the Pensylvania, states that on August 1, the number of its stockholders reached a new high figure, 145,993, an increase of over 5,000 since August 1 last year. The average holding of this road's stock is now 68.40 shares. Incidentally, women own one-third of the road's total stocks. Its employes now own 5,853 shares.

* * *

The American Telephone & Telegraph Company has attracted an increase of 6,264 new shares every month this year. It now has 325,000 stockholders, exclusive of more than 100,000 employes now subscribing for shares on the installment plan. No other corporation can match this total.

* * *

General Motors has also been adding to its stockowners. The latest available figures give 71,382 stockholders, an increase during the quarter of 1,373.

The United States Steel Corporation, on the other hand, had fewer common stockholders on October 1 than on July 1, the decrease having been from 99,189 to 96,517. In 1916 the total was only 40,000, while in 1906 it was less than 15,000.

* * *

The Interstate Commerce Commission reports that at the end of last year the railroads were owned by 807,524 stockholders, a gain over the year of 30,392. The total per value of their holdings was $7,356,546,664, giving an average of 91 shares per stockholder.

We are gradually becoming a nation of investors. Further progress may be looked for during 1925.

NEW ENGLAND'S PRODUCTS ARE BOOMED

By FRANK H. MELOON, Financial Editor.

"New England Week" undoubtedly resulted in a great stimulation of local pride. Some storekeepers are specializing to a degree in locality grown products. In Concord, N. H., for example, we are told grocery and fruit store windows are piled with apples placarded they were grown in Boscawen, Canterbury, Epsom, Hopkinton, etc. It used to be said of Granite State apples that the orchardists never knew just now good they were, because the best were always shipped to Boston, New York or Liverpool.

C. C. Martin

Manager James Farmer of the New Hampshire Co-operative Marketing Associates has just sold 14,000 bushels of MacIntosh and Baldwin apples raised in Derry, N. H., to a big Boston chain store. Manager Farmer says there is a big apple crop in the Granite State, despite the fact that the crop throughout the country is reported under the figures of a year ago.

* * *

C. C. Martin, chairman of the Foreign Credits Committee of the National Association of Credit Men urges practical co-operation as a trade stimulus. He says:—

"Just as a child is reared on the time-honored Mother Goose rhymes, so has the American business man been raised and brought up on the three C's of credit: Character, Capacity and Capital. Possessing these three attributes, an individual or firm is considered worthy of credit extension. But similar to a three-legged stool with one leg missing, or, in other words, lacking one of these qualities, the merchant cannot long stand in the world of business.

"These three C's of credit, which are the main guide-posts on the road of business, combine to establish the one big "C," Confidence, in the mind of the grantor of credit. All credit, whether national, commercial, bank or individual is based primarily upon Confidence.

Confidence, however, as a purely mental factor reaches out in many directions. The seller obviously has confidence in the reputable buyer, and inversely, the purchaser has confidence in the reputable seller from whom he buys.

PRICES REACTIONARY IN COTTON FUTURES

JORDAN, NASH AT NEW TOPS FOR YEAR

With the exception of American Can, Maxwell Motors A and General Electric, which advanced 1½ points each, gains in most of the standard industrials were small. More speculative interest was displayed in motors, metals, local tractions and specialties.

Jordan Motors was early lifted up to 35⅞, International Nickel to 89⅞ and Nash Motors preferred to 103⅞, all at new peak prices for the year.

Manhattan Guaranty certificates, Interborough Rapid Transit and National Lead each climbed more than 2 points while Atlantic Coast Line, American Water Works common, Stewart Warner, Goodrich, American Tobacco B and U. S. Industrial Alcohol were among the score or so issues to sell a point or so higher.

Call money again renewed at 2½ per cent.

American Tobacco, Schulte and Tobacco Products issues were bid up 1 to 2 points in the early afternoon. Meantime, Chandler broke 1⅛ to 30⅝, a new low, and North American and Public Service of New Jersey lost 1⅛ each. A doze less active stocks vibrated 1 to 3 points either way with Great Western Sugar falling to 84⅞, a new minimum.

President Hill following the American Tobacco meeting stated that dividend rate on the new shares had not been discussed, but would come up for consideration at a meeting around the end of this month.

In trading on the Boston Stock Exchange, Boston & Maine common added a point. New England Oil preferred recovered a point from its low. Old Gillette sold off 5. Trading was very quiet.

GARDEN AS HEART OF THE HOUSE

By DR. FRANK CRANE

I LOVE the Spanish idea of building a house.

They do not put the garden out in front, as Americans do, nor behind, as do the English, but in the centre of the house.

It looks as if they built the garden first and the house around it.

This seems to me to be the proper appreciation of the value of outdoors. Only when one has enclosed a little bit of it does it seem his own. It means a bit of earth more private than in any other way.

Perhaps this form of building may be applicable only to warm climates. But every climate is warm at some time of the year and, if one is going to be outdoors at all, how much better to be able to sit in the exclusion of one's own walls, in one's own garden.

This gives the house an aloofness that is exceptional. It is self contained.

The garden in the centre of the house gives an opportunity to sit outdoors and, at the same time, an opportunity for privacy. There is a delightfulness about sitting or dining under the open sky that one cannot find under any roof and the garden in the house supplies us not only with a bit of ground that is our own, but a bit of sky that is ours.

It is characteristic of America, and all of our Western civilization, to confine most of the attention to the house one lives in.

It would be better if the garden space were considered an integral part of the residence and if the garden were enclosed in the house.

Perhaps such things are the result of instincts that lie deeper in us than we imagine, but very probably it is the result of custom and the present custom of having the garden added as an adjunct to the house is one more honored in the breach than in the observance.

We do not live enough out of doors. Probably this is because of our unfavorable climate, but there is many a day and many a night which would better be spent out of doors than in the house.

HEAD NOISES

Mr. C. E. Worthington, 40 Broad St., Boston, says: "I had distressing head noises in my ear, and more or less trouble with my hearing. I consulted my family physician and he told me that he knew of no way to reach the trouble. I was attracted by a number of testimonials from deaf people in favor of the Osmo-Chemic Physicians. I was treated by them and the noises were dispelled. It has been years since I discontinued the Osmo-Chemic treatment and there has been no return of the head noises."

The wonderful power of the X-RAY TREATMENT is proved by the fact that they are accomplishing wonderful results in diseases of every description—CATARRH, DEAFNESS, BRONCHITIS, STOMACH DISEASE, NERVOUS DISORDERS, SKIN DISEASE.

Every used car advertised on this page has undergone a rigid inspection. The Boston American employs expert mechanics to make these tests.

Only an INSPECTED car can receive the blue certificate of inspection. It is your protection and safeguard.

If you do not see the blue Certificate on the windshield of the car you want to buy, ask the dealer to have an inspection made, by telephoning the Boston American, Liberty 4000. No charge nor obligation.

Cars which pass our inspection are, of course, the good cars. Thus, the list below contains the pick of the USED CAR market, in Boston. All types of cars, at all prices, and all inspected.

The Boston American will help you select a Used Car Bargain at just the price you can afford to pay.

Physicians find that 110,000 school children in the State have tuberculosis, are inclined to have it or are "suspected" cases. It is these the present campaign aims primarily to save for the Commonwealth.

Battle With 'White Plague' to Save Lives of Future Minute Men of Massachusetts

"A healthy body is the guest chamber of the soul; a sick one, its prison."—Writings of Lord Bacon.

SICKNESS is one of the great plagues of mankind.

It has challenged the intelligence of men since they wrote on the bark of trees.

It has slain more men and women and children than all the red hosts of war since time began.

Anything that is done or even attempted to curb or cure disease is of universal interest. That interest will increase as men grow more civilized and turn from their wars among themselves to their face real foes.

In Massachusetts, humane and progressive Commonwealth, much has been done and much more is planned to prevent and to curb disease.

It is pleasant to note that Massachusetts is going pioneering again in the field of disease prevention.

It is a double privilege to be able to announce that the beneficiaries of the many-sided campaign just begun by the State Department of Public Health are to be the children—the future minute men and women of the Commonwealth.

Children in sickness and pain appeal to the sympathetic emotions of the normal man or woman as nothing else on this madly whirling planet can.

A man can make his wants known; a child cannot.

A man can understand, console himself with his particular brand of philosophy or religion, as he withstands the "barbs and arrows of outrageous fortune"; a child can only wonder why it is hurt.

It is indeed a versatile and ambitious program that the State Department of Public Health has mapped out for the next twelve months.

Here are the foundations upon which that plan is built:

1—Gradual conquest of tuberculosis among Massachusetts school children by means of the "ten-year program."

2—Improvement of the health of infants through "Well Baby Clinics."

3—Introduction of fundamental medical knowledge into the public schools by medical instruction at all Normal Schools.

4—Intensive education of school physicians as to the nature and care of children's diseases.

The ten-year plan is the very essence of the program. Nothing like it has been attempted by an American State. Small communities have tried it on a small scale and in a small and inadequate way.

Already the plan is in partial operation in Springfield. It will be extended as rapidly as the machinery can be built up. It will cost $500,000. Already $50,000 has been appropriated.

Under it every school child in the State who is afflicted with tuberculosis, threatened with tuberculosis, or inclined toward tuberculosis, is to be given a fighting chance.

Carried through as it was conceived, the program should constitute a real blow at the White Plague.

Physicians who have made a preliminary survey of the school situation in Massachusetts have arrived at certain conclusions.

Among them is the decision that about 110,000 school children have tuberculosis, are inclined to have it, or are "suspected" cases.

BABIES TO BE SAFEGUARDED BY STATE

A group of youngsters at a "Well Baby" clinic, where physicians examine carefully each child for signs of defects or symptoms of approaching disease that they may be put under treatment immediately and grow up to be strong and healthy minute men and women.

These 110,000 children are roughly divided into three classes.

The first class constitutes 1 per cent. of the entire public school membership, and is affected by tuberculosis, usually the bronchial gland type.

The second class is made up of children who are "suspected" cases. About 4 per cent. of all the children who go to the public schools of Massachusetts fall into this second class.

The third class comprises about 10 per cent. of all school children, and consists of those undernourished, over exercised youngsters who MAY develop tuberculosis if they are not watched.

For each of these three classes, the experts of the Division of Tuberculosis, State Department of Health, has a remedy.

For the unfortunate first class comprising the 1 per cent. actually affected by tuberculosis, the remedy is treatment in an institution.

Ultimately, under the new plan, the Westfield State Sanatorium is to be cleared of its adult inmates and transformed into a haven for children having pulmonary troubles.

Many of the children discovered in the first, or proscripted class, will find a short stay at such an institution sufficient.

Children in the second class will be watched. Most of them will be boys and girls predisposed to tuberculosis by reason of heredity.

Those in the third class will be recommended to their family physicians for special treatment as to nutrition, hours of sleeping and hours of play.

Physical examination of the 110,000 constitutes the keystone of the arch of the plan.

That examination already has been begun, in Springfield. Not all school children are to be examined. Only those who fall within the three classes mentioned earlier, namely, those palpably affected by tuberculosis, those who have tubercular ancestry or history, and are "suspected," and those children who, for no known reason, are underweight, chronically sick, and absent from school.

Children who fall in the second class will be kept under close observation, and unless they show improvement within a reasonable time they, too, will be recommended for institutional treatment.

As for the children in the third class, they constitute the most difficult problem for the physician.

Many causes may make children underweight and nervous and distraught. Among them is a slight infection of tuberculosis.

In childhood one may be affected and infected at what Dr. Sumner Remick of the Division Tuberculosis of the State Department of Health calls "the roots of the lungs."

At the moment the infection may not be serious. For many years it may not trouble the victim.

Then, years later, when the strain of life in a competitive age has worn down the power of resistance, tuberculosis and tragedy step in.

To meet this situation in early life requires but a little intelligent direction; to repair the ravages of the disease in after years challenges the ingenuity of the best of physicians.

The entire philosophy of this campaign against tuberculosis in the schools is that the time to battle the White Plague is when it has just taken hold of its victim, or even before that, when it is preparing to move in.

Before leaving this subject of tuberculosis, it may not be amiss to sound a note that has to do with adults as well as children, and that will be heard with interest by every public-spirited person in Massachusetts.

"There is talk of a shortage of beds for tuberculars," says Dr. Eugene R. Kelley, Commissioner of Health. "But there is no shortage of beds, both for those who can pay and those who can't.

"The reason an impression exists that there are not enough beds is that the State hospitals are cheaper than the city and county hospitals, and while they are half empty the State hospitals have waiting lists.

"This is being rectified by a levelling out of prices which will make all good hospitals equal, while not inflicting hardship upon the sufferer."

The other features of the health drive for the young are less complicated, but not less significant.

The "Well Baby Clinics" are part of the general drive forward in the direction of better community health.

Awkward name, "well baby clinics"!

But it contains a concession to a very human weakness, the natural desire of a mother to deny as long as possible that there is a blemish on her darling.

Baby shows we have always with us, but the well baby clinics are something else again.

They are for babies whose mothers are quite sure their dimpled offspring haven't a thing in the world the matter with them. Babies with obvious defects or ailments are not admitted to these clinics. The idea is that family doctors can look out for babies who are really ill.

"It is astonishing how often the 'well babies' disclose real defects," said a shrewd young doctor of the State Department of Health, discussing the clinics.

"It would be depressing, except for the fact that babies always have had such defects, and now we are reporting them to family physicians and suggesting treatment."

The clinics are being held all over the State, and are being well attended. Mothers have lost somewhat of their sensitiveness and their nervousness.

Babies who don't know what it is all about are the gainers.

As to the value of the introduction of medical instruction in Normal Schools, there can be no two opinions.

The "post-graduate courses" for physicians interested in children are being conducted at Westfield State Sanatorium, under the direction of Dr. Henry D. Chadwick, the pioneer in work among child tuberculars.

Dr. Chadwick, a Minute Man of medicine, does not attempt to measure the achievements he has inspired in per cent. and production, dollars and cents.

He does not even try to estimate the value of his studies and his labors in lives.

He merely says that if the plans he has worked out are carried through with the fervor and love of humanity they should and will command, that will help.

Massachusetts is a long way from applying the Golden Rule in all its gentleness toward the little children that were to be allowed to "come unto Him."

But the old Bay State is still in the lead, and still stepping along.
